22 Die At Toledo

Airliner Wobbled Before Fatal Dive

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Survivors of a flaming airliner crash that killed 22 persons Saturday night told of sputtering engines and a wobbly takeoff.

Accounts of the crash and the flame-scarred wreckage of the chartered C46 aircraft were being examined today by federal, state and local investigators, seeking the cause of the disaster.

The twin-engine plane, attempting to take off in a heavy fog, carried 48 persons. Most were members of the California Polytechnic College football team returning to the school.

"We barely got off when the engines started sputtering. Then the left engine gave out—thump!" said James Fahey, 24, a halfback from Gilroy, Calif. He suffered minor injuries.

The plane bounced alongside the runway, broke in half and the front section burst into flames. The dead were riding up front.

Killed were the pilot, co-pilot, and 16 members of the foot team. Also dead were the team manager, a San Luis Obispo insurance man and team booster and the co-pilot's mother and sister-in-law. The women were traveling to Oakland, Calif., to meet the co-pilot's wife of only a few days.

It was the first time an entire athletic team was involved in a fatal plane accident in the United States.

At San Luis Obispo, where California Poly is located, residents were stunned. The student body of 470 scheduled a memorial service today.

Before the takeoff, one survivor said, the plane sat on the runway for about 45 minutes. Although vision was completely obscured

Former Gridder Here On Plane Before Crash

Dave Goodballet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Goodballet, 1113 St. George St., a member of the Youngstown University football team, rode as far as Youngstown on the ill-fated C-46 chartered plane which crashed shortly after takeoff at the Toledo Airport Saturday night, killing 22.

The plane had brought the California Poly team to Ohio for a game with Bowling Green, then continued on to Youngstown where it picked up the Youngstown team Friday morning and flew to New Haven, Conn., for a game with Southern Connecticut State College.

The plane returned to Youngstown with the team Saturday about 7 p. m. and continued to Toledo to pick up the California team for its return to the West Coast.

Nixon Brother Confirms Loan, Denies 'Influence'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon's brother, Donald acknowledged he got a $205,000 loan from industrialist Howard Hughes' tool firm — a circumstance denied last week by the Republican presidential nominee's personal campaign manager.

But, in his first comment on a Drew Pearson column linking the vice president's name with a possible conflict-of-interest deal, Donald Nixon said Sunday: "I have never asked my brother to do anything for me or anyone else in the government; and if I did ask I know he would refuse."

Pearson later said Donald's statement "overlooks several important facts."

Donald issued a statement detailing his financial difficulties, including an unsuccessful effort to save his restaurant business with the $205,000 loan. He accused Pearson of trying to smear his brother.

"I am deeply grieved and concerned to think that any individual would use my business misfortune to influence the outcome of the presidential election," said Donald Nixon.

When the Pearson article appeared last week, Richard M. Nixon's campaign manager, Robert N. Finch, called it "an obvious political smear in the last two weeks of the campaign." Finch said Donald got the loan from an attorney friend.

After Donald Nixon issued his statement, Pearson said: "It should be noted that ordinarily it would not have taken him five days to make an explanation of this transaction if it was clean as a hound's tooth."

Pearson's article last week said "the family of Richard M. Nixon received a $205,000 loan Dec. 10, 1956, from the Hughes Tool Co. and that thereafter Hughes' problems with various government agencies improved. Whether the improvement was connected with the loan is not known."

"Drew Pearson has charged that four years ago my corporation and my mother were loaned a large sum of money, without sufficient security, and that this sum was never repaid," Donald Nixon's statement said.

"Those were humiliating times. The scars they left are deep.

"Now, in the last days of the presidential campaign, my brother's political opponents have resurrected the entire matter and embellished it with false state-

Student Killed In Car Mishap At Amsterdam

George Redovian Jr. Loses Life As Auto Overturns In Ditch

An Amsterdam youth was killed and a companion was injured when their auto crashed on Highway 164 near Amsterdam Sunday night at 8:30. Another youth escaped injury in the Jefferson County crash.

The victim was George Redovian Jr., 17, star basketball player at Springfield Local High School, who was the driver, the Wintersville State Highway Patrol said.

Redovian, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Redovian of Wolf Run, near Amsterdam, was to have been captain of the school's basketball team this winter. He was a member of the Russian Orthodox Church.

Services are being arranged by the Sweeney & Son Funeral Home in Amsterdam.

Calcutta Woman Hurt When Car Strikes Pole

A Calcutta woman is in "fair" condition today in City Hospital with injuries received when her auto crashed into a utility pole Sunday at 7:50 p. m. on St. Clair Ave. Ext.

Mrs. Thelma Saltsman, 59, suffered a possible fracture of the jaw and a lacerated chin when she lost control and the car went off the road, the Lisbon State Highway Patrol said.

The patrol said the auto is owned by her husband, Lester Saltsman. The patrol reported it was unable to obtain a statement from the injured woman concerning the cause of the mishap.

Ware Pay Conference To Resume Wednesday

Dinnerware industry union and management spokesmen will meet in Cleveland Wednesday to resume negotiations over a new working agreement that broke off in a stalemate in mid-October in New York City.

The meeting will bring together the labor committee of the U. S. Potters Association, speaking for management, and spokesmen for the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters.

The current contract, signed in May 1959, expires on Dec. 1. The IBOP asked a "substantial pay increase" and other concessions for its members employed in plants covered by the USPA contract. The USPA proposed a 6-cent hourly cut.

Alaska Visit Included In Final Attack

Nixon Determined To Complete Plans For All 50 States

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon arranged a campaign strategy conference today with the presidential race turning into the homestretch.

In another campaign development, Nixon announced he plans a visit to Alaska. This will round out his coverage of all 50 states.

The White House announced that Nixon, Republican candidate to succeed Eisenhower, and a group of campaign aides would lunch with Eisenhower.

Asked whether the meeting would deal with campaign strategy, with the election just eight days off, presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty laughed and replied:

"Certainly they are not going to talk about the time of day. It will be a discussion of the final days of the campaign."

The Republican standard bearer said today he will leave Los Angeles about noon Sunday on his 2,400-mile jet flight to Anchorage for a late afternoon rally there. Sunday night he will make a 3,100-mile flight to Detroit for a final rally next Monday.

"Many of my friends have advised me to leave Alaska off the itinerary," he said today. "They point out that the start of the campaign was delayed by my knee injury and that there is a demand for appearances in other parts of the nation. I feel that no one state can be counted safe in this election.

"I believe that historians will look at this campaign as one which helped restore the two-party system to many of the states where presidential candidates in the past have seldom if ever appeared. Covering all 50 states emphasizes this.

"I noted this reaction especially in the South."

Nixon so far has campaigned in 47 states. He will make stops in South Carolina and Wyoming this week to bring his total to 49 before visiting Alaska.

Nixon is convinced that in this week he is going to win or lose his battle with Sen. John F. Ken-

Plane Downed By Heavy Fog

Hammondsville Site Forms Landing Area

HAMMONDSVILLE — A Minnesota pilot who apparently became lost in dense fog made a forced landing Saturday morning on an area farm, escaping injury when the small craft sheared off a tree in a clearing.

The pilot was identified as Verne Goudy, recently discharged from the Air Force, who said he was en route to Delaware.

Goudy landed the PT-23 Fairchild trainer — a World War II model — on a field at the farm of Clyde Workman of the Hammondsville-Bergholz Rd., Saturday morning about 10.

The propellor of the single engine craft was shattered and the right wind was punctured when the plane struck the tree during the landing.

Goudy hitched a ride to Wellsville, where he purchased a used car for $125 and said he was heading for Chicago. He removed the radio from the craft before leaving. The plane bore the identification number N69625.

Goudy told witnesses he thought he was near Lake Erie and landed on the Workman farm after circling the area about three times and spotting the clearing.

He said the field is long enough for a make-shift takeoff spot once repairs to the plane are completed. Meanwhile, the craft is the subject of inspection by many Hammondsville and rural residents.

Sen. Kennedy Ends Tour Of Pennsylvania

Nominee Heads For California And New Key Campaign Talks

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy today winds up four back-breaking days of campaigning in touch-and-go Pennsylvania, then heads tonight for another critical state, California.

His final effort here was another day-long schedule of motorcade stops, this time all in the city of Philadelphia, where Democratic chieftans hope to pile up a big enough plurality to carry the state's 32 electoral votes for Kennedy. A nationally televised speech at a $100-a-plate dinner at Convention Hall is on tap tonight —NBC, 8:30 p. m. EST.

The Democratic candidate made these points Sunday:

1. On the CBS "Face the Nation" panel program, Kennedy said a possible counter-measure if the country slipped into a deep recession by January would be a temporary tax cut for four or five months. He said a tax cut would be the fastest way to give the economy a lift.

2. On the same TV show, the religious issue came up again, and Kennedy said he and his fellow American Roman Catholics are strongly against any state religion. "If 99 per cent of the population were Catholics I would still oppose it," he said.

3. In a separate statement, he pledged "if elected president I shall not devalue the dollar from the present rate." This was aimed at recent speculation in gold in the London market, based on a rumor—strongly denied by the Eisenhower administration — that the dollar might be devalued by increasing the U. S. price for gold.

4. Pledged that if elected he would seek a goal of 82 million jobs by 1968. He estimated that 84 million would be eligible for employment by then and his figure would represent full employment.

In his earnest restatement of his position on separation of church and state, Kennedy burst out, "Nothing can be done about my religion. I am what I am and I'm going to be what I am."

He said it was a legitimate issue but he hoped his stand was clear and that it would not be discussed again in the campaign. "What is there left to say?" he asked.

Castro Calls Militia

U.S. Marines End Short Cuba 'Visit'

HAVANA (AP)—A special force of 1,450 U.S. Marines was due to sail away from Guantanamo naval base today after a weekend visit that served a strong hint to Prime Minister Fidel Castro that help was not far off should he try to take the big American installation by force.

In apparent retaliation for the presence of the Marines, Castro Sunday called out an estimated 200,000 of his reorganized civilian militia for meetings in Havana. Speakers harped on Castro's oft-repeated theme that the United States is planning to launch an invasion of Cuba.

U.S. authorities at first said the 48-hour visit of the Marines at the base on the southeast coast was to give the highly trained force relaxation ashore. But they later added it could be considered a show of strength to discourage Castro from any attack on the base.

Castro's supporters called the visit of the Marines "provocation and aggression."

Castro appeared at one of the militia meetings and boasted Cuba's defenses are stronger than ever and "any mercenaries"—his usual term for invaders—would be liquidated if they came to Cuba.

Called out at 7 a.m., the militiamen filled in forms to give information on where they could be found at any hour of the day. It was learned during their mass turnout that they have been reorganized along more military lines and their training period lengthened.

Speakers at one of the meetings said a force of 147 men—about company strength — in each of Havana's militia districts soon would be equipped with "the most modern weapons," presumably obtained from Czechoslovakia.

Castro, in an interview with the Egyptian weekly Akhbar Elyon said Cubans are not such "idiots" as to try to take the Guantanamo base by force.

Castro was criticized by a high member of the Roman Catholic hierarchy, Msgr. Eduardo Boza Nasvidal, auxiliary bishop of Havana. He issued a pamphlet stating that Castro's social revolution contradicted Christian principles and followed the Communist line.

In the Panama Canal Zone Sunday, six officers and one crewman of the Cuban ship Oriente jumped ashore as the freighter was going through the canal and asked asylum from U.S. authorities. With the captain and the chief engineer the only officers left aboard, the ship had to delay its departure for Korea with a cargo of sugar.

'Voice 1' And 'Voice 2'

Neely Reveals Recording In 'Barron-Skeen' Case

CHARLESTON (AP) — A copy of the tape recording which has figured in the Barron - Skeen case was played for newsmen today by Harold E. Neely, Republican candidate for governor, and campaign aides.

State Treasurer Orel J. Skeen said in an affidavit last May that the recording was of a conversation in which Attorney General W. W. Barron offered Skeen $65,000 not to enter the Democratic primary for governor. Barron now is the Democratic nominee for governor.

At the morning news conference at which the tape was played today, Neely said:

"In my opinion, the voices here, to the best of my knowledge, as I know these two men well. . . are the voices of Wally Barron and Orel J. Skeen."

Released at the same time was a transcript of the recording in which the voices were simply labeled "Voice 1" and "Voice 2". Neely said that to the best of his knowledge "Voice 2" was Barron.

Following is the pertinent part of the recording, so far as Skeen's charge is concerned:

Voice 1: "One more question. If we got this thing resolved. I may be wrong. I may be wrong as I can be, but I think I have got a whole lot to offer. And if I have it to offer, why what do you have to offer?"

Voice 2: "Well I told you what I have got to offer. If we pitch in together and if we make the grade. We go back to our original understanding. It still stands. And that was about $65,000. That was what we talked about.

"Of course that was just an

U.N. Restores Tense Truce In Kasai War

4 Whites Charged With Conspiring To Start Civil Strife

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—U.N. troops have blunted an offensive by rampaging Baluba tribesmen in chaotic Kasai province after seizing four white officers leading the native warriors.

Three Belgians posing as traders and a white Rhodesian identified only as "Captain Robert" were accused by the U.N. high command of masterminding a plot to plunge Kasai into civil war in violation of a truce pact.

U.N. troops from Ghana and Liberia with armored cars checked 5,000 Baluba tribesmen who pillaged villages in a drive northward from the self-styled separatist "Mining State" of tribal chief Albert Kalonji.

An uneasy peace was restored in Kasai over the weekend but U.N. troops and planes were alerted to fly in reinforcements to meet any new flareup.

Indian Gen. I. Rikhye of the United Nations forces told a news conference he hoped the detention of the four Europeans he charged with organizing the rebellion would end the revolt. They were seized Sunday and taken to Luluabourg, capital of Kasai province.

Iran Celebrates Birth Of Son To Shah, Queen

Castro appeared at one of the militia meetings and boasted Cuba's defenses are stronger than ever and "any mercenaries"—his usual term for invaders—would be liquidated if they came to Cuba.

Called out at 7 a.m., the militiamen filled in forms to give information on where they could be found at any hour of the day. It was learned during their mass turnout that they have been reorganized along more military lines and their training period lengthened.

Speakers at one of the meetings said a force of 147 men—about company strength — in each of Havana's militia districts soon would be equipped with "the most modern weapons," presumably obtained from Czechoslovakia.

Castro, in an interview with the Egyptian weekly Akhbar Elyom said Cubans are not such "idiots" as to try to take the Guantanamo base by force.

Castro was criticized by a high member of the Roman Catholic hierarchy, Msgr. Eduardo Boza Nasvidal, auxiliary bishop of Havana. He issued a pamphlet stating that Castro's social "revolution contradicted Christian principles and followed the Communist line.

In the Panama Canal Zone Sunday, six officers and one crewman of the Cuban ship Oriente jumped ashore as the freighter was going through the canal and asked asylum from U.S. authorities. With the captain and the chief engineer the only officers left aboard, the ship had to delay its departure for Kenya with a cargo of sugar.

'Voice 1' And 'Voice 2'

Neely Reveals Recording In 'Barron-Skeen' Case

CHARLESTON (AP) — A copy of the tape recording which has figured in the Barron - Skeen case was played for newsmen today by Harold E. Neely, Republican candidate for governor, and campaign aides.

State Treasurer Orel J. Skeen said in an affidavit last May that the recording was of a conversation in which Attorney General W. W. Barron offered Skeen $65,000 not to enter the Democratic primary for governor. Barron now is the Democratic nominee for governor.

At the morning news conference at which the tape was played today, Neely said:

"In my opinion, the voices here to the best of my knowledge, as I know these two men well, . . are the voices of Wally Barron and Orel J. Skeen."

Released at the same time was a transcript of the recording in which the voices were simply labeled "Voice 1" and "Voice 2". Neely said that to the best of his knowledge "Voice 2" was Barron.

Following is the pertinent part of the recording, so far as Skeen's charge is concerned:

Voice 1: "One more question. If we get this thing resolved I may be wrong, I may be wrong as I can be, but I think I have got a whole lot to offer. And if I have it to offer, why what do you have to offer?"

Voice 2: "Well I told you what I have got to offer. If we pitch in together and if we make the grade. We go back to our original understanding. It still stands. And that was about $65,000. That was what we talked about.

"Of course that was just an

U.N. Restores Tense Truce In Kasai War

4 Whites Charged With Conspiring To Start Civil Strife

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—U.N. troops have blunted an offensive by rampaging Baluba tribesmen in chaotic Kasai province after seizing four white officers leading the native warriors.

Three Belgians posing as traders and a white Rhodesian identified only as "Captain Robert" were accused by the U.N. high command of masterminding a plot to plunge Kasai into civil war in violation of a truce pact.

U.N. troops from Ghana and Liberia with armored cars checked 3,000 Baluba tribesmen who pillaged villages in a drive northward from the self-styled separatist "Mining State" of tribal chief Albert Kalonji.

An uneasy peace was restored in Kasai over the weekend but U.N. troops and planes were alerted to fly in reinforcements to meet any new flareup.

Indian Gen. I. Rikhye of the United Nations forces told a news conference he hoped the detention of the four Europeans be charged with organizing the rebellion would end the revolt. They were seized Sunday and taken to Luluabourg, capital of Kasai province.

Iran Celebrates Birth Of Son To Shah, Queen

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — Queen Farah Dibah gave birth to a son today, giving the Shah of Iran an heir after three marriages.

Cannons boomed out a 41-gun salute to tell waiting crowds that at long last a successor to Iran's peacock throne had been born. The Shah has a daughter by his first marriage, but women cannot succeed to the throne in Moslem Iran.

The boy was born two hours and 45 minutes after the queen entered the crowded Commoners' Charity Hospital.

Crash

When the Arctic Pacific Airlines plane started down the runway it began to "fishtail," said F. Sheldon Harden, an assistant coach who received only minor scratches.

Mechanics who serviced the plane said there was no indication of difficulties.

Among those investigating the crash is the Civil Aeronautics Board, which brought a 12-man team of experts. The Federal Aviation Agency and the Ohio Highway Patrol also are conducting inquiries.

The plane brought the California team here Thursday, then went to Youngstown, Ohio, where it picked up the Youngstown University football squad for a flight to New Haven, Conn. Then it returned here to pick up the Cal Poly team, which lost its Saturday afternoon game to Bowling Green University, 50-6. After the game, Coach Hughes said:

Stewardess Relates Incidents In Crash

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Tears flooded the blue eyes of the tiny airline stewardess as she recalled the burning man on the runway, the moaning of the injured, and the young football players she'll never see again.

It took a moment for Mrs. Faith Miller of Seattle to regain the poise she learned to carry during her 14 years as a stewardess.

She was among the 26 persons who survived the crash of a C46 plane at Toledo Express Airport Saturday night. Twenty-two others did not.

"The fire-fighter said the man on the ground was dead, but I didn't want to believe it," she said. So I picked up a portable fire extinguisher and put out the flames."

Survivors said the 34-year-old woman was heroic in her rescue work. The 5-foot-2 brunette said she couldn't recall how many passengers she helped remove or how many times she darted in and out of the sheared-off tail section of the twin-engine plane.

Her best guess was that perhaps there were 15 persons she assisted from the tilted rear of the craft.

"As long as I knew there were people to be helped, I was going to stay there to help them," she said from her hospital bed. Mrs. Miller suffered a minor wrist injury, but said she wasn't even aware of this until someone insisted she get into an ambulance. Later she was released from the hospital.

Thirty-five of the 48 occupants were members of the California Polytechnic College football team. Authorities said 16 players lost their lives.

Mrs. Miller said she had gotten to know the athletes well on the flight from San Luis Obispo, Calif. to Toledo. The tears returned and her voice trailed off as she said, "They were real fine young men . . . fine athletes, too."

She said there was no panic among the survivors.

"I was amazed at how well they handled themselves. Mr. Harden (assistant coach F. Sheldon Harden) and Mr. Williamson (Walt Williamson, backfield coach) did a magnificent job of keeping the boys calmed down and organizing them outside."

College Students Plan Memorial For Victims

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Calif. (AP) —Thousands of California State Polytechnic College students will bow their heads at memorial services today for 16 members of their football team who died in a flaming Ohio plane crash.

The crash Saturday night killed 22 and injured 26. All but five of the dead were from the college or from the town of San Luis Obispo.

There were eight married students on the trip. Five of them were killed, including a father of four and star halfback Garry Van Horne, whose wife is expecting her second child.

Most of the dead perished in the twisted burned wreckage of the chartered aircraft which was scattered over the end of a runway at the Toledo airport. The team was returning to California after losing 50-6 to Bowling Green.

Sunday morning the entire campus was glum and somber. But by afternoon girls in bright Capri pants talked and laughed near their dormitories. Several male students were playing basketball spiritedly on an outside court at the campus which is set against the Santa Lucia Mountains midway between San Francisco and Los Angeles.

"When the radio and TV bulletins started Saturday night, our campus almost died," one girl recalled. "I told a girl who dated one of the players about the crash and she backed up against the wall and began screaming 'you're kidding, you're kidding.' "

Karen Watson, wife of a student, said: "There was a Hallowe'en hayride and dance set for Saturday night. We were in the truck all ready to go when the word came over a car radio.

"Couple by couple, everyone got up and went home. I've never seen anything like it in my life."

When the news was announced at a downtown movie, many coeds broke into sobs.

Harried school officials worked through the night, calming relatives and answering calls.

ments purporting to involve my brother in those problems which were mine alone and not his."

Donald said he got the loan through attorney Frank J. Waters. "Mr. Waters told me that he thought he could get a client of his to lend $205,000. I learned that the loan would be made by the Hughes Tool Co. I never met Mr. Howard Hughes, the owner of Hughes Tool Co."

Donald said his mother, Hannah Nixon, executed a promisory note in favor of Waters for $205,000, secured by a mortgage on a corner lot she owned in suburban Whittier, Calif.

"I have had this property appraised by competent appraisers who fixed the value of the property today without improvements at $228,000," Donald continued. "The value of the property is greater than the total amount of the loan so that the lender has clearly suffered no loss and will suffer no loss."

Pearson, in Monterey, Calif., for a speaking engagement, told the Los Angeles Examiner that Donald's statement overlooks:

"1. that Frank Waters was the lobbyist for Howard Hughes and on intimate terms with the vice president.

"2. That extreme secrecy was used to conceal the loan.

Car Taken In City Wrecked At Mingo

A city woman's car, reported stolen Saturday night, was recovered about an hour later near Mingo Junction, where it had been wrecked, police were advised.

Deputies said the car had hit a guard rail and came within a foot of plunging down a 50-foot embankment. The thief fled hurriedly, leaving the ignition and the lights turned on, deputies added.

Mrs. Koontz reported the theft at 10:23 p. m. Saturday but told officers she didn't know when the car was stolen. It had been parked in Green Ln. between Smith St. and Potters Alley since July 16, she said.

Motor And Mower Taken By Burglar

A variety of equipment, including an outboard motor, a power mower, a tire and tools were stolen from his home Saturday night or early Sunday, Clarence Boston, 701 Armstrong Ln., told police yesterday.

Boston said the thieves pulled a hasp from a door frame to enter the basement.

The loss included a 5½ - horsepower outboard motor and fuel tank, power mower, a box of mechanics' tools worth $60, an 800-x-14 snow tread tire and a small tackle box with fishing lures.

Harry Shields, 849 St. George St., told police a metal box containing flags, flares and torches was taken from his truck parked on Market St. and Drury Ln. Saturday night.

nedy, his Democratic rival. The vice president apparently feels that all that has gone before, including four nationwide television appearances of the two candidates has left the score about even at this time.

Some of Nixon's strategists rate the vice president ahead in California, Texas, Illinois and Pennsylvania. They concede he may be behind in New York and Michigan. They call Ohio about even.

Nixon is pinning his hopes of winning New York on Wednesday campaigning in New York City with President Eisenhower, Lodge, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Sens. Jacob K. Javits and Kenneth B. Keating.

Despite their public claims, it seems evident that the Nixon camp would regard the capture of New York's 45 electoral votes as political manna they don't really expect to fall their way. They credit Rockefeller with working hard for them in the state, but some of them think many Roman Catholics who ordinarily vote Republican will go for Kennedy, a Catholic.

MOUNTAIN LAUREL
Q. Are any plants or flowers commonly found in gardens poisonous?
A. Only a few garden plants are harmful when eaten. Included among the harmful ones are plants of the Solanaceae family, rhododendrons, mountain laurel, Christmas rose, and monkshood. The seeds and juice of oleander are very poisonous, as are many other plants of the Apocynaceae family.
Q. Does the body "put up a fight" or build any defense against cancer?
A. Two things are involved in the disease which we know as cancer—the tumor and the victim's reaction to the tumor. The cancer lesion tends to grow and invade normal body tissue, while the person's body resists to varying degrees. If the body wins the battle all is well. If the tumor wins, the cancerous process goes on until the end. Much is known about tumors, how they grow and how they destroy tissue, but not much has been learned about the body's power to resist cancer. Researchers are studying this phase of cancer in their search for better methods of treatment. More knowledge along these lines may supply the answer to the cancer problem.
Q. Are there ways to "fool" the color-blind test given to armed service inductees?
A. No. The test usually given for color blindness, in which the person being tested views a series of color plates (such as the Ishihara series), is failed by almost all subjects with any degree of red-green color deficiency.

ments purporting to involve my brother in those problems which were mine alone and not his."

Donald said he got the loan through attorney Frank J. Waters. "Mr. Waters told me that he thought he could get a client of his to lend $205,000. I learned that the loan would be made by the Hughes Tool Co. I never met Mr. Howard Hughes, the owner of Hughes Tool Co."

Donald said his mother, Hannah Nixon, executed a promisory note in favor of Waters for $205,000, secured by a mortgage on a corner lot she owned in suburban Whittier, Calif.

"I have had this property appraised by competent appraisers who fixed the value of the property today without improvements at $228,000," Donald continued. "The value of the property is greater than the total amount of the loan so that the lender has clearly suffered no loss and will suffer no loss."

Pearson, in Monterey, Calif., for a speaking engagement, told the Los Angeles Examiner that Donald's statement overlooks:

"1. that Frank Waters was the lobbyist for Howard Hughes and on intimate terms with the vice president.

"2. That extreme secrecy was used to conceal the loan.

Car Taken In City Wrecked At Mingo

A city woman's car, reported stolen Saturday night, was recovered about an hour later near Mingo Junction, where it had been wrecked, police were advised.

Deputies said the car had hit a guard rail and came within a foot of plunging down a 50-foot embankment. The thief fled hurriedly, leaving the ignition and the lights turned on, deputies added.

Mrs Koontz reported the theft at 10:23 p. m. Saturday but told officers she didn't know when the car was stolen. It had been parked in Green Ln. between Smith St. and Potters Alley since July 16, she said.

Motor And Mower Taken By Burglar

A variety of equipment, including an outboard motor, a power mower, a tire and tools were stolen from his home Saturday night or early Sunday, Clarence Boston, 701 Armstrong Ln., told police yesterday.

Boston said the thieves pulled a hasp from a door frame to enter the basement.

The loss included a 5½ - horsepower outboard motor and fuel tank, power mower, a box of mechanics' tools worth $60, an 800-x-14 snow tread tire and a small tackle box with fishing lures.

Harry Shields, 849 St. George St., told police a metal box containing flags, flares and torches was taken from his truck parked on Market St. and Drury Ln. Saturday night.

nedy, his Democratic rival. The vice president apparently feels that all that has gone before, including four nationwide television appearances of the two candidates has left the score about even at this time.

Some of Nixon's strategists rate the vice president ahead in California, Texas, Illinois and Pennsylvania. They concede he may be behind in New York and Michigan. They call Ohio about even.

Nixon is pinning his hopes of winning New York on Wednesday campaigning in New York City with President Eisenhower, Lodge, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Sens. Jacob K. Javits and Kenneth B. Keating.

Despite their public claims, it seems evident that the Nixon camp would regard the capture of New York's 45 electoral votes as political manna they don't really expect to fall their way. They credit Rockefeller with working hard for them in the state, but some of them think many Roman Catholics who ordinarily vote Republican will go for Kennedy, a Catholic.

Poisonous Plants

- Cancer Defense
- Color-blind Test

Q. Are any plants or flowers commonly found in gardens poisonous?
A. Only a few garden plants are harmful when eaten. Included among the harmful ones are plants of the Solanaceae family, rhododendrons, mountain laurel, Christmas rose, and monkshood. The seeds and juice of oleander are very poisonous, as are many other plants of the Apocynaceae family.

Q. Does the body "put up a fight" or build any defense against cancer?
A. Two things are involved in the disease which we know as cancer—the tumor and the victim's reaction to the tumor. The cancer lesion tends to grow and invade normal body tissue, while the person's body resists to varying degrees. If the body wins the battle all is well. If the tumor wins, the cancerous process goes on until the end. Much is known about tumors, how they grow and how they destroy tissue, but not much has been learned about the body's power to resist cancer. Researchers are studying this phase of cancer in their search for better methods of treatment. More knowledge along these lines may supply the answer to the cancer problem.

Q. Are there ways to "fool" the color-blind test given to armed service inductees?
A. No. The test usually given for color blindness, in which the person being tested views a series of color plates (such as the Ishihara series), is failed by almost all subjects with any degree of red-green color deficiency.

Adolf Berle On San Juan Hill

Whoever wins the presidential contest on Nov. 8, the United States is still going to be struggling with the problem of the Communist challenge in Cuba.

There can be no doubt about it that Fidel Castro's regime is heating up the Cuban cauldron to the boiling point and that this is being done for a calculated purpose.

It is a reasonable guess that the purpose is to incite trouble between the United States and Cuba. It is also a reasonable guess that trouble might be the means of saving Castro's regime from earlier extinction than awaits all political extremists in the long run. The bearded dictator must be in desperate need by this time of something to take the minds of Cubans off the shortcomings of the Castro revolutionists as administrators.

The problem for the United States is how to keep from doing what Castro wants it to do. That's why there was an explosion in the presidential campaign when Sen. Kennedy said he would give assistance to Castro's opponents inside Cuba. That was the kind of talking point Castro needed to prove his charge that the United States is intervening in Cuban domestic affairs.

In the meantime, an interesting reaction from the Kennedy viewpoint has been registered. Adolf A. Berle Jr., who was assistant secretary of state for Latin American Affairs from 1938 to 1944 and ambassador to Brazil from 1945 to 1946, has asserted that Kennedy is right and that the treaties which Berle helped to draw when he was with the Roosevelt administration give the United States the right to charge up San Juan hill at will if an act of aggression is threatened.

Mr. Berle is one of the leading members of the New York Liberal party, a splinter organization in New York City backing the Kennedy candidacy. He has given his candidate what amounts to a semi-official opinion that intervention in Cuba would be proper, in direct contradiction to the Eisenhower policy that intervention in Cuba would be improper unless an act of aggression has been committed.

A voter pondering a decision on Nov. 8 is left to wonder whether Adolf A. Berle Jr. may be one of the half dozen or so Kennedy backers who would be considered for the post of secretary of state.

Hold The Nose Before Swallowing

The New York Times has earned so much prestige its presidential endorsements always loom extra-large. In 1952, its early and enthusiastic endorsement of Dwight Eisenhower signalized the beginning of the strong tide of normally Democratic support that augmented his Republican victory.

In its tardy endorsement of Sen. Kennedy, less than two weeks before Election Day in 1960, The Times showed no enthusiasm. It said, "We must state frankly that there is one aspect of the Democratic campaign which gives us concern—the question of fiscal policy . . . . The Democratic party's platform goes far beyond the Republican platform in making promises of large spending. Yet it calls at this time for 'no increase in present tax rates.' This is not a reassuring prospect, since it involves the hazards of inflation. . . ."

The New York Times also holds its nose over Sen. Kennedy's "momentary blunder suggesting intervention in Cuba," so its endorsement this year has no ring of conviction. What this great newspaper has done, in effect, is to take a Democrat in preference to a Republican, with strong reservations about Democratic prudence in money management and the candidate's lack of discretion in popping off on a delicate issue of foreign policy.

All newspapers that carry forward the two-party system by endorsing one candidate over another—always to the angry dismay of their readers who intend to vote for the other candidate—are sympathetic with the New York Times in this situation.

It is in the same pickle that many normally Republican papers were in when Thomas E. Dewey was running. They were for Dewey with reservations.

The New York Times is for Kennedy with reservations. It is afraid the people who put him up for the presidency and will claim the right to tell him what to do are a bunch of wild hares in the one thing that matters most in government—management of money.

As reservations go, that one's a yard wide, 3 feet high and 36 inches deep—a giant-size reservation if there ever was one.

Deserving Honors

New honors came to East Liverpool residents over the weekend in different fields of endeavor.

Atty. Francis Lang received one of the highest awards in Boy Scouting and Asst. Supt. of Schools Paul H. Blair was named president of the East Central Ohio Teachers Association.

Such recognition doesn't come easily. It is based on merit and much hard work and devotion to a cause go with it.

It's pleasing to have Mr. Lang and Mr. Blair receive these latest honors as individuals and it's equally pleasing to have East Liverpool linked with their careers.

Now For A Prestige Index

It's as unclear to some of the rest of us as it is to President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon what Sen. Kennedy uses for a prestige index to show where the United States stands.

But now that the subject of prestige has been raised, prestige will have to be regularized and scientized, in the modern American manner. There will have to be a prestige index that everybody can watch, to keep track of fluctuations and worry about them.

This will take its place along with freight car loadings, the consumer goods index, gross national product, the wholesale price index, bank clearings and the latest index that has been demonstrated to be reliable—the New York Yankees in the World Series. If the Yankees win the World Series, the stock market goes up. When they lose the Series, the stock market goes down.

This sounds like the stripes on caterpillars that are supposed to tell what kind of a winter it's going to be, but there will be those who will take it seriously. Sure enough, the market did sag when the Yankees lost to the Pirates.

Whether or not the United States is as prestigious now as it was in the past or should be in the future is one of those vague things like speculating on the proper length of a man's legs.

Some of the country's finest hours have been lived during its least prestigious periods, as in the Revolution and the period after Pearl Harbor.

And some of its more fantastic bloopers have been scored when it was so full of prestige it couldn't see its own feet for the bulge in its chest, as in the Spanish-American War when it made its first efforts to get along with revolutionists in Cuba.

The most systematic effort to maintain prestige in the modern world has been Britain's. Everything about British conduct for generations has been calculated to impress observers with the dignity and strength of the British lion.

Yet, in the last analysis, British prestige always has rested on British law, manners, culture, humor and integrity. The great battleships and their booming guns are gone. The sun does set on the British flag now. But British prestige is still high. Only the fear index has been falling.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

U.N. just celebrated its 15th birthday. It doesn't feel a day over one hundred. Organization got a lucky break when Happy Birthday telegrams got through without a veto.

It was organized 15 years ago when human beings were thought to have had all the war they wanted. Upside-down talk hadn't been developed to a high art.

Russia, saved by the free world, was thought to be an appreciative friend. Peace got good notices and few people dreamed it would take years of conflict to preserve it. But on its 15th anniversary there was so much belligerency everywhere that use of a knife to cut birthday cake could be mistaken as a fresh outbreak of violence.

We hear a singing telegram was kept out because of a claim it wasn't on the agenda and didn't come under procedural rules.

Organization is 15 years old, but it aged greatly in the three weeks Khrushchev visited it. Ironic fact is that the U.N., dedicated to peace, has become a fight center.

U.N. was formed in the belief human beings were rational and wanted to live. That was away back before the dove of peace flew backwards and developed habits of snapping turtle.

It was only a couple of years old when Russians showed they regarded it as scene of main event in Olympics Apple - Cart - Upsetting Games.

How it managed to survive this long is a mystery, but it is still in there struggling to see that mankind doesn't wind up under a pile of hot ashes under a sign "WAS THIS TRIP NECESSARY!"

Good luck to the organization. It will need it.

NEW YORK is putting a "flying squadron" into service to check on operation of buses in a manner giving riders minimum courtesy. Target will be drivers who treat customers as public enemies, slamming doors on them, failing to pull up to the curb and displaying "cold front" to the public generally.

Squadron consists of 17 men. (It will take more than 17 men to get buses to stop on signal.)

Drivers and riders are in such a state of raw nerves that two big questions confront a flying squadron: (1) In checking a driver should it give him a rebuke or a sedative; (2) In handling squawks of passengers should it give them an anaesthetic while trying to board a bus or when getting off?

On most city lines, bus passengers are taking a beating unknown to any form of transportation except chicken-trucking. They are combat soldiers in a war to travel between given points with minimum pain.

Ike announced on the golf course his decision to make last minute speeches to prevent a Democratic victory. Probably made decision after a good round with his driving irons. But golf is golf and just before he tees off in these final campaign speeches he will probably ask caddy what club to use and whether Democrats have widened traps and water hole.

The only U. S. state which has a Greek motto is California, whose motto is "Eureka," an exclamation of triumph meaning, "I have found it" — the reference being to the famed discovery of gold.

The leading industrial state in the U. S. is New York, which has 72 per cent more factories than second-ranking California.

You Can Be 'Popular' And Still Lose

Electoral College Can Do Funny Things During An Election

A big popular vote for president may be impressive to some but to the politically keen it doesn't mean a thing — unless it's spread around in the right places.

The joker is the electoral college.

Each state is allowed one electoral vote for each of its senators and representatives in Congress. The candidate who wins the popular vote of the state, no matter what his majority, gets all the electoral vote.

THE SITUATION has producted what may be called "popular losers."

Of course, it hasn't happened recently; not since 1888 when Democrat Grover Cleveland beat Benjamin Harrison by some 90,000 popular votes and lost the election by 65 electoral votes.

But it's a possibility of which every politician is aware.

The existence of the electoral college also has produced the phenomenon of the minority president, the one who wins with less than half the popular vote in years when there is a strong third party.

Abraham Lincoln was one in 1860 and so was Harry Truman in 1948 when he collected slightly less than 50 per cent of the popular ballots and 70 per cent of the electors.

Franklin D. Roosevelt's 523-8 electoral landslide over Republican Alf Landon in 1936 wasn't as impressive on the popular side. He got 61 per cent of the vote, a good margin but far from the electoral college's 98 per cent.

Adlai Stevenson, in his 1952 bid for the presidency, got more popular votes than any other man in history, save two.

The two were Franklin D. Roosevelt and, unfortunately for Stevenson, Dwight D. Eisenhower in the very same year. Electorally, it was an Eisenhower landslide, 442-89.

In the past 40 years, only two — Robert M. LaFollette's Progressives in 1924 and J. Strom Thurmond's States' Rights Democrats in 1948 — have wound up with figures in the electoral column.

But a third party can wield a strong influence on the election outcome by taking votes away from the major parties. It's happened several times.

Teddy Roosevelt's Progressives in 1912 collected so many presumably Republican votes that Democrat Woodrow Wilson waltzed into office with a good deal less than a popular majority.

Lincoln in 1860, with the Democrats split two ways and a third party, the Constitutional Unionists, in the field, was a shoo-in with slightly less than 40 per cent of the popular vote.

One elector from Alabama, in fact, couldn't bring himself to vote for Stevenson in 1956 and cast his ballot for one Walter Jones, who wasn't even running.

When Horace Greeley, the losing Democratic candidate in 1872, died shortly after the election but before the electoral college met, his electoral votes were split among four men.

The political makeup of the House and Senate can vary widely and suddenly since roughly one-third of the senators and all the representatives come up for election every two years.

REPUBLICAN membership in the House, for instance, went from a majority of 100 to a minority of 193 in only four years between 1929 and 1933.

And, only four years after that, in the 1936 GOP debackle, the Democratic majority soared to an all-time record 242 seats before it started dropping. By the 1947 Congress, the Republicans were back in the legislative saddle.

The face of the Senate changes more slowly, since each senator is elected for a six year term and only about one seat in three becomes available every two years.

Republicans had such a hefty (56-39) margin in the 1929 Senate that it took the Democrats two elections to catch up, even with the House heavily Democratic in the meantime.

Off year congressional elections, those in the years when a president is not chosen, can sometimes be used to predict the outcome of the next campaign for the White House.

In the election of 1918, midway through Woodrow Wilson's second term, Republicans ousted the Democratic majority in Congress and followed up by placing Warren G. Harding in the White House two years later.

On the other hand, Republicans won both houses of Congress in the off year 1946 election but failed to evict Truman from 1600 Pennsylvania Ave. in 1948.

He came home an easy winner over Stevenson in 1956 yet the Republicans fell 33 seats behind the Democrats in the House and two seats to the rear in the Senate.

Few presidents have enjoyed the congressional majorities that Franklin D. Roosevelt did when he swept into his second term in 1936. Democrats outnumbered Republicans 331-89 in the House and 76-16 in the Senate.

Then the Republicans began whittling away at the margin and, 10 years later, they were back in the driver's seat — all of which proves that control of Congress can be as uncertain as, say, the electoral college.

Course Of The Campaign

By Raymond Moley

As I have followed with close attention the course of this presidential campaign, I have become more and more impressed by its similarity to the general election in England in September and October, 1959. I was over there for the three weeks before the election, gathering information and impressions, visiting industrial communities like Birmingham, Coventry and London.

Here is how it was.

Things began moving with the issuance of the Labor party manifesto, which appeared on Sept. 18, about 20 days before the election. It painted a lurid picture of the contrast between the business community and the plight of the old, the sick, and the unemployed.

It attacked the complacency of the Conservative government. It said that the Conservative government was "self-deceived" at home and abroad.

It attacked the shortcomings of the conservatives, especially at Suez and Cyprus and said that the prestige of Britain was declining abroad.

IT PROMISED more housing, more hospitals, more aid for "depressed areas." Especially, it promised to raise pensions 10 shillings a week. This was the widely placarded "ten bob" issue, designed to get the votes of old people.

To pay for all the benefits, Hugh Gaitskell fell back on two devices which we have heard about over here in this campaign in almost every major speech: A higher rate of economic growth and closing the loopholes in tax laws.

The theory of economic growth through government spending proposed by Gaitskell and Kennedy come from the same school of economic philosophy.

So far as loopholes in tax laws were concerned, Labor Spkesmen promised to stop tax-dodging and to look into "business expense accounts."

Over here this year the Democratic platform says: "We shall close the loopholes in the tax laws. . . . Among the most conspicuous loopholes are depletion allowances which are inequitable, special consideration for recipients of divided income, and deductions for 'extravagant business expenses! . . . we shall bring in additional revenues by expanding the economy itself."

Finally, in his last appeals, Gaitskell promised to cut taxes.

The relative advantage of the two sides in Britain as interpreted in the press and elsewhere followed the same line that we have seen here. There was great confidence in a Conservative victory four weeks before election. Then the tide seemed to swing to Labor.

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Voters of St. Clair Township were asked to approve a $60,000 bond issue at the November election for the erection of a centralized school in Calcutta.

Ely Taylor, clerk of the Wellsville Board of Health for about 25 years, resigned and Wilbur Dales was named to the position.

Miss Elizabeth Hanna of Chester was elected as an out-of-town representative on the Women's Self Government Association, coed governing body at Ohio State University.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — A six-man advisory board for Hancock County draft registrants was named by Judge J. J. P. O'Brien of the First Judicial Circuit of West Virginia.

S. E. Daw, Wellsville school superintendent, was advised that the city school district had a per pupil taxing valuation almost one-third under the average for the cities of Ohio.

TEN YEARS AGO — Earl Smith, principal of the Calcutta School, was named secretary - treasurer of the Columbiana County Schoolmasters Association.

Mrs. Helen Leatherberry of Wellsville and Mrs. Anna Grubbs of Lisbon were initiated by Salon 432 of the Columbiana County 8 & 40 Society.

Soviet Welches On Paying U.N. Expenses

The Soviet government is attempting to blackmail the United Nations. It has announced a refusal to pay its share of the U.N. expenses in the Congo. The other communist members take the same position.

David Lawrence

When a member of a club refuses to pay dues, he is usually dropped from membership. When a member says he will pay dues only if the majority of the club bow to his wishes, the custom is to denounce any such pressure and expel him from membership.

Last Tuesday, the Soviet government formally notified the secretary general of the United Nations that it would not pay its share of a $66.62 million appropriation needed to cover the expenses of the first six months of the U.N. emergency force in the Congo.

The Soviet delegate told the General Assembly's administrative and budgetary committee that the money is being spent in the Council directives in order to support "Western colonialists" and that Russia and the Communist bloc "does not feel it can participate in paying the costs."

THIS PROVOKES a crisis in the future of the U.N. Will it yield to backmail and let any member decide whether or not to pay its allotted share of the expense of the organization? The U.N. Charter says in Article 17:

"1. The General Assembly shall consider and approve the budget of the organization.

"2. The expenses of the organization shall be borne by the members as apportioned by the General Assembly."

Under Article 19, the charter says:

"A member of the United Nations which is in arrears in the payment of its financial contributions to the organization shall have no vote in the General Assembly if the amount of its arrears equals or exceeds the amount of the contributions due from it for the preceding two full years.

"The General Assembly may, nevertheless, permit such a member to vote if it is satisfied that the failure to pay is due to conditions beyond the control of the member."

None of the Communist bloc members is bankrupt or financially incapable of paying the assessments imposed by the general assembly.

THE RECORD shows, moreover, that the Soviet Union has paid none of its share of the expense for policing the Gaza Strip, authorized by the U.N. after the Suez crisis in 1955.

Out of the 1960 bill of $20 million, this country is paying $9,697,064, but the Soviet Union now has been in default of its assessments for four years, totaling more than $10 million. Other Communist-bloc countries have followed the same course.

The Soviet government takes the position that it will decide for itself what assessments it will pay of those levied by the U.N. General Assembly upon all members.

In effect, this means that, if the Soviets don't like a paricular resolution or directive, even though a majority of the members formally adopt it, there will be a refusal to pay until the assembly conforms to the wishes of the minority dissenters.

This is a form of blackmail which, if tolerated, will mean worldwide loss of respect for the United Nations organization.

Indeed, it is conceivable that failure to meet its obligations could mean the expulsion of the Soviet Union from the Security Council, too.

It often has been argued that, since the Moscow government is a "permanent" member and holds a veto in the Security Council, it can never be expelled from the United Nations. But a close look at the language of the charter disputes this view.

Thus Article 6 says:

"A member of the United Nations which has persistently violated the principles contained in the present charter may be expelled from the organization by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the Security Council."

Also, Article 27 says: "Decisions of the Security Council on procedural matters shall be made by an affirmative vote of seven members."

Certainly payment of dues and assessments is a "procedural" matter, so the Soviet government's single veto would not be sufficient to prevent expulsion. And how can any organization survive if it can't get the money for expenses from its members?

The United States pays the lion's share of the U.N. expenses. The estimated cost of all U.N. operations in 1960 is about $283.65 million of which this country will pay nearly half, or approximately $120.5 million.

Why should the United States bear such a burden when the Soviet government decides for itself what expenses it will pay and those on which it will openly welch?

The Soviet Union this year will pay around $17.45 million for some of the regular expenses of the U.N. but declines to pay any assessment of which it doesn't approve, though there is nothing in the charter to sustain such defiance or such pressure to change policies by withholding money contributions. This is really blackmail.

Letters To The Editor

After reading in various newspapers and personally hearing many remarks in oratorial blasts about taxes and government spending in Washington, it seems to be appropriate at this time to take a look at our local financial sheet which we, as voters and taxpayers, can feel and see more readily.

This article is not to be an endorsement of any candidate nor is it intended to detract from the dutiful performance of any one in office.

In the past several years a particular trend has been noticeable; a precedent seems to have been established in the county relative to governmental affairs. Some of the following figures and comments have been gathered from local newspapers, while others are from personal experiences and observations.

On the one side of the ledger it is noted that the various departments of county government must economize by slashing 10 per cent off budget requirements. One department that is vital to the people has reduced to 75 and 80 per cent due to lack of funds.

On the expenditure sheet, we find that because of increased population, the "boys" are in line for a substantial raise in salary. Several new cars have been bought which apparently are for personal use of individual employes. Appropriations ranging in sums from $10 to $700 have been made for conferrers to be in attendance in various cities, most popular of which seem to be in Florida.

In an implacable struggle for existence, but having profound trust in democracy, I believe that if democracy is to work efficiently and representative government is to be had "for the people" and "by the people", not just "for people" and "by people" — it must have its foundation here at home.

The foregoing, in my opinion, are things to think over when going to the polls on Nov. 8.

I read with interest in Thursday's Review the letter from Marven O. Bowman Jr., minister from Calcutta.

Mr. Bowman suggests that Americans consider the actions in the political field of the three Roman Catholic bishops of Puerto Rico, who attempted to influence the vote of their parishioners. Is this the best Mr. Bowman can do? Why, I don't have to leave the city of East Liverpool to point out Protestant interference, yet he must go to Puerto Rico to show Catholic intervention!

Through this entire political campaign the Catholic Church of America has kept itself clean on the issue at hand. The Catholic pulpit has not been used to influence the voter. It has been used only as the source of religious instruction. Yet I wonder how many Protestant ministers will corrupt Reformation Sunday with sermons on politico-religious hatred.

Mr. Bowman's "trick" of taking thoughts out of context and omitting key phrases has surely become a trite action these days. Let's take a look at his own letter using this procedure:

Is this really the thought Mr. Bowman wanted to convey? Of course not!

Catholics realize that only a very small percentage of Protestants are bigoted. Unfortunately, those that are shout the loudest.

I must point out, Mr. Bowman, that my vote and support are going to Richard Nixon, my personal choice for the presidency. And somehow I feel that Mr. Nixon will more appreciate my vote, one based on political decision, than he will yours, based on religious hatred.

Adolf Berle On San Juan Hill

Whoever wins the presidential contest on Nov. 8, the United States is still going to be struggling with the problem of the Communist challenge in Cuba.

There can be no doubt about it that Fidel Castro's regime is heating up the Cuban cauldron to the boiling point and that this is being done for a calculated purpose.

It is a reasonable guess that the purpose is to incite trouble between the United States and Cuba. It is also a reasonable guess that trouble might be the means of saving Castro's regime from earlier extinction than awaits all political extremists in the long run. The bearded dictator must be in desperate need by this time of something to take the minds of Cubans off the shortcomings of the Castro revolutionists as administrators.

The problem for the United States is how to keep from doing what Castro wants it to do. That's why there was an explosion in the presidential campaign when Sen. Kennedy said he would give assistance to Castro's opponents inside Cuba. That was the kind of talking point Castro needed to prove his charge that the United States is intervening in Cuban domestic affairs.

In the meantime, an interesting reaction from the Kennedy viewpoint has been registered. Adolf A. Berle Jr., who was assistant secretary of state for Latin American Affairs from 1938 to 1944 and ambassador to Brazil from 1945 to 1946, has asserted that Kennedy is right and that the treaties which Berle helped to draw when he was with the Roosevelt administration give the United States the right to charge up San Juan hill at will if an act of aggression is threatened.

Mr. Berle is one of the leading members of the New York Liberal party, a splinter organization in New York City backing the Kennedy candidacy. He has given his candidate what amounts to a semi-official opinion that intervention in Cuba would be proper, in direct contradiction to the Eisenhower policy that intervention in Cuba would be improper unless an act of aggression has been committed.

A voter pondering a decision on Nov. 8 is left to wonder whether Adolf A. Berle Jr. may be one of the half dozen or so Kennedy backers who would be considered for the post of secretary of state.

Hold The Nose Before Swallowing

The New York Times has earned so much prestige its presidential endorsements always loom extra-large. In 1952, its early and enthusiastic endorsement of Dwight Eisenhower signalized the beginning of the strong tide of normally Democratic support that augmented his Republican victory.

In its tardy endorsement of Sen. Kennedy, less than two weeks before Election Day in 1960, The Times showed no enthusiasm. It said, "We must state frankly that there is one aspect of the Democratic campaign which gives us concern—the question of fiscal policy . . . . The Democratic party's platform goes far beyond the Republican platform in making promises of large spending. Yet it calls at this time for 'no increase in present tax rates.' This is not a reassuring prospect, since it involves the hazards of inflation. . . ."

The New York Times also holds its nose over Sen. Kennedy's "momentary blunder suggesting intervention in Cuba," so its endorsement this year has no ring of conviction. What this great newspaper has done, in effect, is to take a Democrat in preference to a Republican, with strong reservations about Democratic prudence in money management and the candidate's lack of discretion in popping off on a delicate issue of foreign policy.

All newspapers that carry forward the two-party system by endorsing one candidate over another—always to the angry dismay of their readers who intend to vote for the other candidate—are sympathetic with the New York Times in this situation.

It is in the same pickle that many normally Republican papers were in when Thomas E. Dewey was running. They were for Dewey with reservations.

The New York Times is for Kennedy with reservations. It is afraid the people who put him up for the presidency and will claim the right to tell him what to do are a bunch of wild hares in the one thing that matters most in government—management of money.

As reservations go, that one's a yard wide, 3 feet high and 36 inches deep—a giant-size reservation if there ever was one.

Deserving Honors

New honors came to East Liverpool residents over the weekend in different fields of endeavor.

Atty. Francis Lang received one of the highest awards in Boy Scouting and Asst. Supt. of Schools Paul H. Blair was named president of the East Central Ohio Teachers Association.

Such recognition doesn't come easily. It is based on merit and much hard work and devotion to a cause go with it.

It's pleasing to have Mr. Lang and Mr. Blair receive these latest honors as individuals and it's equally pleasing to have East Liverpool linked with their careers.

Now For A Prestige Index

It's as unclear to some of the rest of us as it is to President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon what Sen. Kennedy uses for a prestige index to show where the United States stands.

But now that the subject of prestige has been raised, prestige will have to be regularized and scientized, in the modern American manner. There will have to be a prestige index that everybody can watch, to keep track of fluctuations and worry about them.

This will take its place along with freight car loadings, the consumer goods index, gross national product, the wholesale price index, bank clearings and the latest index that has been demonstrated to be reliable—the New York Yankees in the World Series. If the Yankees win the World Series, the stock market goes up. When they lose the Series, the stock market goes down.

This sounds like the stripes on caterpillars that are supposed to tell what kind of a winter it's going to be, but there will be those who will take it seriously. Sure enough, the market did sag when the Yankees lost to the Pirates.

Whether or not the United States is as prestigious now as it was in the past or should be in the future is one of those vague things like speculating on the proper length of a man's legs.

Some of the country's finest hours have been lived during its least prestigious periods, as in the Revolution and the period after Pearl Harbor.

And some of its more fantastic bloopers have been scored when it was so full of prestige it couldn't see its own feet for the bulge in its chest, as in the Spanish-American War when it made its first efforts to get along with revolutionists in Cuba.

The most systematic effort to maintain prestige in the modern world has been Britain's. Everything about British conduct for generations has been calculated to impress observers with the dignity and strength of the British lion.

Yet, in the last analysis, British prestige always has rested on British law, manners, culture, humor and integrity. The great battleships and their booming guns are gone. The sun does set on the British flag now. But British prestige is still high. Only the fear index has been falling.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

U.N. just celebrated its 15th birthday. It doesn't feel a day over one hundred. Organization got a lucky break when Happy Birthday telegrams got through without a veto.

It was organized 15 years ago when human beings were thought to have had all the war they wanted. Upside-down talk hadn't been developed to a high art.

Russia, saved by the free world, was thought to be an appreciative friend. Peace got good notices and few people dreamed it would take years of conflict to preserve it. But on its 15th anniversary there was so much belligerency everywhere that use of a knife to cut birthday cake could be mistaken as a fresh outbreak of violence.

We hear a singing telegram was kept out because of a claim it wasn't on the agenda and didn't come under procedural rules.

Organization is 15 years old, but it aged greatly in the three weeks Khrushchev visited it. Ironic fact is that the U.N., dedicated to peace, has become a fight center.

U.N. was formed in the belief human beings were rational and wanted to live. That was away back before the dove of peace flew backwards and developed habits of snapping turtle.

It was only a couple of years old when Russians showed they regarded it as scene of main event in Olympics Apple - Cart - Upsetting Games.

How it managed to survive this long is a mystery, but it is still in there struggling to one that mankind doesn't wind up under a pile of hot ashes under a sign "WAS THIS TRIP NECESSARY!"

Good luck to the organization. It will need it.

NEW YORK is putting a "flying squadron" into service to check on operation of buses in a manner giving riders minimum courtesy. Target will be drivers who treat customers as public enemies, slamming doors on them, failing to pull up to the curb and displaying "cold front" to the public generally.

Squadron consists of 17 men. (It will take more than 17 men to get buses to stop on signal.)

Drivers and riders are in such a state of raw nerves that two big questions confront a flying squadron: (1) In checking a driver should it give him a rebuke or a sedative; (2) In handling squawks of passengers should it give them an anaesthetic while trying to board a bus or when getting off?

On most city lines, bus passengers are taking a beating unknown to any form of transportation except chicken-trucking. They are combat soldiers in a war to travel between given points with minimum pain.

Ike announced on the golf course his decision to make last minute speeches to prevent a Democratic victory. Probably made decision after a good round with his driving irons. But golf is golf and just before he tees off in these final campaign speeches he will probably ask caddy what club to use and whether Democrats have widened traps and water hole.

The only U. S. state which has a Greek motto is California, whose motto is "Eureka," an exclamation of triumph meaning, "I have found it" — the reference being to the famed discovery of gold.

The leading industrial state in the U. S. is New York, which has 72 per cent more factories than second-ranking California.

You Can Be 'Popular' And Still Lose

Electoral College Can Do Funny Things During An Election

A big popular vote for president may be impressive to some but to the politically keen it doesn't mean a thing — unless it's spread around in the right places.

The joker is the electoral college.

Each state is allowed one electoral vote for each of its senators and representatives in Congress. The candidate who wins the popular vote of the state, no matter what his majority, gets all the electoral vote.

THE SITUATION has producted what may be called "popular losers."

Of course, it hasn't happened recently; not since 1888 when Democrat Grover Cleveland beat Benjamin Harrison by some 90,000 popular votes and lost the election by 65 electoral votes.

But it's a possibility of which every politician is aware.

The existence of the electoral college also has produced the phenomenon of the minority president, the one who wins with less than half the popular vote in years when there is a strong third party.

Abraham Lincoln was one in 1860 and so was Harry Truman in 1948 when he collected slightly less than 50 per cent of the popular ballots and 70 per cent of the electors.

Franklin D. Roosevelt's 523-8 electoral landslide over Republican Alf Landon in 1936 wasn't as impressive on the popular side. He got 61 per cent of the vote, a good margin but far from the electoral college's 98 per cent.

Adlai Stevenson, in his 1952 bid for the presidency, got more popular votes than any other man in history, save two.

The two were Franklin D. Roosevelt, and, unfortunately for Stevenson, Dwight D. Eisenhower in the very same year. Electorally, it was an Eisenhower landslide, 442-89.

In the past 40 years, only two — Robert M. LaFollette's Progressives in 1924 and J. Strom Thurmond's States' Rights Democrats in 1948 — have wound up with figures in the electoral column.

But a third party can wield a strong influence on the election outcome by taking votes away from the major parties. It's happened several times.

Teddy Roosevelt's Progressives in 1912 collected so many presumably Republican votes that Democrat Woodrow Wilson waltzed into office with a good deal less than a popular majority.

Lincoln in 1860, with the Democrats split two ways and a third party, the Constitutional Unionists, in the field, was a shoo-in with slightly less than 40 per cent of the popular vote.

One elector from Alabama, in fact, couldn't bring himself to vote for Stevenson in 1956 and cast his ballot for one Walter Jones, who wasn't even running.

When Horace Greeley, the losing Democratic candidate in 1872, died shortly after the election but before the electoral college met, his electoral votes were split among four men.

The political makeup of the House and Senate can vary widely and suddenly since roughly one-third of the senators and all the representatives come up for election every two years.

REPUBLICAN membership in the House, for instance, went from a majority of 100 to a minority of 103 in only four years between 1929 and 1933.

And, only four years after that, in the 1938 GOP debackle, the Democratic majority soared to an all-time record 242 seats before it started dropping. By the 1947 Congress, the Republicans were back in the legislative saddle.

The face of the Senate changes more slowly, since each senator is elected for a six year term and only about one seat in three becomes available every two years.

Republicans had such a hefty (56-39) margin in the 1929 Senate that it took the Democrats two elections to catch up, even with the House heavily Democratic in the meantime.

Off year congressional elections, those in the years when a president is not chosen, can sometimes be used to predict the outcome of the next campaign for the White House.

In the election of 1918, midway through Woodrow Wilson's second term, Republicans ousted the Democratic majority in Congress and followed up by placing Warren G. Harding in the White House two years later.

On the other hand, Republicans won both houses of Congress in the off year 1946 election but failed to evict Truman from 1600 Pennsylvania Ave. in 1948.

Dwight D. Eisenhower is one of the few presidents to win an election and fail to carry his own party into control of the Congress.

He came home an easy winner over Stevenson in 1956 yet the Republicans fell 32 seats behind the Democrats in the House and two seats to the rear in the Senate.

Few presidents have enjoyed the congressional majorities that Franklin D. Roosevelt did when he swept into his second term in 1936. Democrats outnumbered Republicans 331-89 in the House and 76-16 in the Senate.

Then the Republicans began whittling away at the margin and, 10 years later, they were back in the driver's seat — all of which proves that control of Congress can be as uncertain as, say, the electoral college.

Course Of The Campaign

By Raymond Moley

As I have followed with close attention the course of this presidential campaign, I have become more and more impressed by its similarity to the general election in England in September and October, 1959. I was over there for the three weeks before the election, gathering information and impressions, visiting industrial communities like Birmingham, Coventry and London.

Here is how it was.

Things began moving with the issuance of the Labor party manifesto, which appeared on Sept. 18, about 20 days before the election. It painted a lurid picture of the contrast between the business community and the plight of the old, the sick, and the unemployed.

It attacked the complacency of the Conservative government. It said that the Conservative government was "self-deceived" at home and abroad.

It attacked the shortcomings of the conservatives, especially at Suez and Cyprus and said that the prestige of Britain was declining abroad.

IT PROMISED more housing, more hospitals, more aid for "depressed areas." Especially, it promised to raise pensions 10 shillings a week. This was the widely placarded "ten bob" issue, designed to get the votes of old people.

To pay for all the benefits, Hugh Gaitskell fell back on two devices which we have heard about over here in this campaign in almost every major speech: A higher rate of economic growth and closing the loopholes in tax laws.

The theory of economic growth through government spending proposed by Gaitskell and Kennedy come from the same school of economic philosophy.

So far as loopholes in tax laws were concerned, Labor Spokesmen promised to stop tax-dodging and to look into "business expense accounts."

Over here this year the Democratic platform says: "We shall close the loopholes in the tax laws. . . . Among the most conspicuous loopholes are depletion allowances which are inequitable, special consideration for recipients of divided income, and deductions for 'extravagant business expenses' . . . we shall bring in additional revenues by expanding the economy itself."

Finally, in his last appeals, Gaitskell promised to cut taxes.

The relative advantage of the two sides in Britain as interpreted in the press and elsewhere followed the same line that we have seen here. There was great confidence in a Conservative victory four weeks before election. Then the tide seemed to swing to Labor.

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Voters of St. Clair Township were asked to approve a $60,000 bond issue at the November election for the erection of a centralized school in Calcutta.

Ely Taylor, clerk of the Wellsville Board of Health for about 25 years, resigned and Wilbur Dales was named to the position.

Miss Elizabeth Hanna of Chester was elected as an out-of-town representative on the Women's Self Government Association, coed governing body at Ohio State University.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — A six-man advisory board for Hancock County draft registrants was named by Judge J. J. P. O'Brien of the First Judicial Circuit of West Virginia.

S. E. Daw, Wellsville school superintendent, was advised that the city school district had a per pupil taxing valuation almost one-third under the average for the cities of Ohio.

TEN YEARS AGO — Earl Smith, principal of the Calcutta School, was named secretary - treasurer of the Columbiana County Schoolmasters Association.

Mrs. Helen Leatherberry of Wellsville and Mrs. Anna Grubbs of Lisbon were initiated by Salem 432 of the Columbiana County 8 & 40 Society.

Soviet Welches On Paying U.N. Expenses

The Soviet government is attempting to blackmail the United Nations. It has announced a refusal to pay its share of the U.N. expenses in the Congo. The other communist members take the same position.

David Lawrence

When a member of a club refuses to pay dues, he is usually dropped from membership. When a member says he will pay dues only if the majority of the club bow to his wishes, the custom is to denounce any such pressure and expel him from membership.

Last Tuesday, the Soviet government formally notified the secretary general of the United Nations that it would not pay its share of a $66.62 million appropriation needed to cover the expenses of the first six months of the U.N. emergency force in the Congo.

The Soviet delegate told the General Assembly's administrative and budgetary committee that the money is being spent in the Council directives in order to support "Western colonialists" and that Russia and the Communist bloc "does not feel it can participate in paying the costs."

THIS PROVOKES a crisis in the future of the U.N. Will it yield to backmail and let any member decide whether or not to pay its allotted share of the expense of the organization? The U.N. Charter says in Article 17:

"1. The General Assembly shall consider and approve the budget of the organization.

"2. The expenses of the organization shall be borne by the members as apportioned by the General Assembly."

Under Article 19, the charter says:

"A member of the United Nations which is in arrears in the payment of its financial contributions to the organization shall have no vote in the General Assembly if the amount of its arrears equals or exceeds the amount of the contributions due from it for the preceding two full years.

"The General Assembly may, nevertheless, permit such a member to vote if it is satisfied that the failure to pay is due to conditions beyond the control of the member."

None of the Communist bloc members is bankrupt or financially incapable of paying the assessments imposed by the general assembly.

THE RECORD shows, moreover, that the Soviet Union has paid none of its share of the expense for policing the Gaza Strip, authorized by the U.N. after the Suez crisis in 1955.

Out of the 1960 bill of $20 million, this country is paying $9,697,064, but the Soviet Union now has been in default of its assessments for four years, totaling more than $10 million. Other Communist-bloc countries have followed the same course.

The Soviet government takes the position that it will decide for itself what assessments it will pay of those levied by the U.N. General Assembly upon all members.

In effect, this means that, if the Soviets don't like a paricular resolution or directive, even though a majority of the members formally adopt it, there will be a refusal to pay until the assembly conforms to the wishes of the minority dissenters.

This is a form of blackmail which, if tolerated, will mean worldwide loss of respect for the United Nations organization.

Indeed, it is conceivable that failure to meet its obligations could mean the expulsion of the Soviet Union from the Security Council, too.

It often has been argued that, since the Moscow government is a "permanent" member and holds a veto in the Security Council, it can never be expelled from the United Nations. But a close look at the language of the charter disputes this view.

Thus Article 6 says:

"A member of the United Nations which has persistently violated the principles contained in the present charter may be expelled from the organization by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the Security Council."

Also, Article 27 says: "Decisions of the Security Council on procedural matters shall be made by an affirmative vote of seven members."

Certainly payment of dues and assessments is a "procedural" matter, so the Soviet government's single veto would not be sufficient to prevent expulsion. And how can any organization survive if it can't get the money for expenses from its members?

The United States pays the lion's share of the U.N. expenses. The estimated cost of all U.N. operations in 1960 is about $283.65 million of which this country will pay nearly half, or approximately $120.5 million.

Why should the United States bear such a burden when the Soviet government decides for itself what expenses it will pay and those on which it will openly welch?

The Soviet Union this year will pay around $17.45 million for some of the regular expenses of the U.N. but declines to pay any assessment of which it doesn't approve, though there is nothing in the charter to sustain such defiance or such pressure to change policies by withholding money contributions. This is really blackmail.

Letters To The Editor

After reading in various newspapers and personally hearing many remarks in oratorial blasts about taxes and government spending in Washington, it seems to be appropriate at this time to take a look at our local financial sheet which we, as voters and taxpayers, can feel and see more readily.

Strike Looms For 7 Papers In New York

NEW YORK (AP)—Officials of the New York Newspaper Guild predict a midnight strike tonight unless the city's major daily newspapers improve their offer of a $3 weekly package increase.

The $3 offer, made by six of the seven newspaper Sunday night, was immediately termed unacceptable by the Guild.

No proposal was made by the New York Post, but it was expected to make one today.

The New York Times was the first paper to make an offer. It includes an average of $2 more a week in wages, plus about $1 a week in welfare improvements It also provides for a wage-reopening at the beginning of a second year of a contract running slightly more than two years—terminating Dec. 7, 1962.

A spokesman for the Guild, a unit of the American Newspaper Guild, said if "this is their final offer we will be headed for a strike on Monday night." He also charged that the offer was made for the purpose "of provoking a strike."

The Guild has asked a general 10 per cent wage increase in a one-year contract, an employer contribution of 2 per cent more of the payroll for increased pension benefits, a union shop, increased job security, a ninth paid holiday and other benefits.

The Guild's two-year contracts at the seven papers expire at midnight tonight. The guild has indicated it would strike one or more of the seven papers.

Allocation of the $3 offer differed slightly among the other newspapers: The Daily News, the Herald-Tribune, the Journal-American, the Mirror and the World-Telegram & Sun.

The Guild represents 6,000 editorial, business and maintenance department employes on the seven newspapers. Minimum salaries now range from $58 a week for office boys to $160.55 for reporters and photographers.

50 Attend Meeting Of Veterans' Unit

About 50 attended a staff meeting of the Ohio Marine Corps League and auxiliary which held a dinner and separate meetings over the weekend in East Liverpool.

Reserve Brig. Gen. Walter A. Churchill of Toledo, national Marine Corps League commandant, cited the importance of boosting membership in the league and auxiliary when he spoke at a banquet Saturday night in the Travelers Hotel.

League and auxiliary officers held separate meetings Sunday morning. Another staff meeting was set for Feb. 25 in Cleveland. Selection of next year's convention city is expected to be made at the Cleveland meeting.

Protestants Averaged $70 Donation In 1959

NEW YORK (AP) — Church members averaged nearly $70 a year in church donations last year, says the National Council of Churches.

Altogether, the total given to the 49 Protestant and Orthodox denominations in the national council was $2,407,464,641, the organization said Sunday.

Starlings Find Home In Mouth Of 'Gorilla'

FARMINGDALE, N. J. (AP) — When the Jersey Jungle animal farm is open for business, Bobar, the mechanical gorilla, stands at his post emitting ferocious roars and waving his arms to attract tourists.

But this year, the 9-foot gorilla, made of wood, chicken wire and canvas, started giving out a curious "chirp, chirp" through his jagged teeth.

Strike Looms For 7 Papers In New York

NEW YORK (AP)—Officials of the New York Newspaper Guild predict a midnight strike tonight unless the city's major daily newspapers improve their offer of a $3 weekly package increase.

Negotiations continue today with federal mediators in charge.

The $3 offer, made by six of the seven newspaper Sunday night, was immediately termed unacceptable by the Guild.

No proposal was made by the New York Post, but it was expected to make one today.

The New York Times was the first paper to make an offer. It includes an average of $2 more a week in wages, plus about $1 a week in welfare improvements It also provides for a wage-reopening at the beginning of a second year of a contract running slightly more than two years—terminating Dec. 7, 1962.

A spokesman for the Guild, a unit of the American Newspaper Guild, said if "this is their final offer we will be headed for a strike on Monday night." He also charged that the offer was made for the purpose "of provoking a strike."

The Guild has asked a general 10 per cent wage increase in a one-year contract, an employer contribution of 2 per cent more of the payroll for increased pension benefits, a union shop, increased job security, a ninth paid holiday and other benefits.

The Guild's two-year contracts at the seven papers expire at midnight tonight. The guild has indicated it would strike one or more of the seven papers.

Allocation of the $3 offer differed slightly among the other newspapers: The Daily News, the Herald-Tribune, the Journal-American, the Mirror and the World-Telegram & Sun.

The Guild represents 6,000 editorial, business and maintenance department employes on the seven newspapers. Minimum salaries now range from $58 a week for office boys to $160.55 for reporters and photographers.

League and auxiliary officers held separate meetings Sunday morning. Another staff meeting was set for Feb. 25 in Cleveland. Selection of next year's convention city is expected to be made at the Cleveland meeting.

FBI Captures Killer Suspect

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — "Okay," the tall, young man said, "I give up."

The mildness of the words belied the intensive, nine-month search that ended quietly here Saturday with the capture of one of the FBI's 10 most-wanted men, Joseph Corbett Jr.

Corbett, wanted on a charge of murdering a millionaire Colorado brewer, was being held here today under a close guard on a minor charge of being in possession of an unregistered firearm.

The pistol was on a bed in the hotel room where Corbett was arrested by a squad of Vancouver police and FBI men. Officers said Corbett, who turned 32 only six days ago, never had a chance to use the weapon.

The quiet, studious Corbett had eluded officers since August of 1955 when he escaped a Chino, Calif., prison where he was serving a term for second-degree murder of an Air Force sergeant.

But the hunt for Corbett was stepped up when the FBI placed him on their most-wanted list after linking him with the disappearance of Adolph Coors III last Feb. 9. Coors' remains were found Sept. 11 about 60 miles from the Golden, Colo., brewer's home in the Rocky Mountain foothills.

Youth Given Probation On Illegal Use Of Auto

LISBON — A 15-year-old Lisbon area youth was placed on probation to his parents after a hearing this morning before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin on charges of driving a car without the owner's consent and without a driver's license and being out after curfew.

He allegedly took a car at East Palestine.

The youth must be at home each evening immediately after school; must not apply for a drivers license for a year, pay $25 to the Child Counseling Center and report to Chris Pusey, juvenile officer, each week, the court ordered.

If you cook bacon over very low heat, the drippings will be white and they may be used to season green vegetables.

Shawnee Scout Group Will Meet Wednesday

LISBON — The monthly meeting of the Shawnee Scout District roundtable will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. at the New Waterford School, according to Kenneth Mudgridge, executive director of the district.

The fall roundup will be the main item of discussion. The December program also will be aired.

Over 50 representatives from the troops and packs in the Shawnee District are expected to attend. Kenneth McLaughlin of Pack 70 and Walt Esterly of Troop 35 will act as hosts.

Rival Candidates Have Something In Common

YASSIADA ISLAND, Turkey (AP) — Details of ex-Premier Adnan Menderes' love affair with a 35-year-old opera singer were bared today in the court trying him on a charge of infanticide.

Menderes, 61, admitted he "lived as man and wife" with the singer, brunette Ayhan Aydan.

A high investigating committee which probed the Menderes regime prior to the trial charges that Menderes, ousted and arrested after student riots last spring, incited an Istanbul gynecologist, Dr. Hahri Atabey, to kill a child born to Miss Aydan in 1955.

Menderes and Dr. Atabey, who also is a prisoner on Yassiada Island, both deny the charge.

Menderes admitted he was the father of a child which was born to Ayhan two months prematurely and died shortly after birth.

Dr. Atabey testified when he arrived in Ankara from Istanbul the child was already dead and he helped arrange the burial.

FBI Captures Killer Suspect

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — "Okay," the tall, young man said, "I give up."

The mildness of the words belied the intensive, nine-month search that ended quietly here Saturday with the capture of one of the FBI's 10 most-wanted men, Joseph Corbett Jr.

Corbett, wanted on a charge of murdering a millionaire Colorado brewer, was being held here today under a close guard on a minor charge of being in possession of an unregistered firearm.

The pistol was on a bed in the hotel room where Corbett was arrested by a squad of Vancouver police and FBI men. Officers said Corbett, who turned 32 only six days ago, never had a chance to use the weapon.

The quiet, studious Corbett had eluded officers since August of 1955 when he escaped a Chino, Calif., prison where he was serving a term for second-degree murder of an Air Force sergeant.

But the hunt for Corbett was stepped up when the FBI placed him on their most-wanted list after linking him with the disappearance of Adolph Coors III last Feb. 9. Coors' remains were found Sept. 11 about 60 miles from the Golden, Colo., brewer's home in the Rocky Mountain foothills.

Youth Given Probation On Illegal Use Of Auto

LISBON — A 15-year-old Lisbon area youth was placed on probation to his parents after a hearing this morning before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin on charges of driving a car without the owner's consent and without a driver's license and being out after curfew.

He allegedly took a car at East Palestine.

The youth must be at home each evening immediately after school; must not apply for a drivers license for a year, pay $25 to the Child Counseling Center and report to Chris Pusey, juvenile officer, each week, the court ordered.

If you cook bacon over very low heat, the drippings will be white and they may be used to season green vegetables.

Shawnee Scout Group Will Meet Wednesday

LISBON — The monthly meeting of the Shawnee Scout District roundtable will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. at the New Waterford School, according to Kenneth Mudgridge, executive director of the district.

Six In Ferguson Family On State Payroll, Draw $50,484 Annual Pay

By ED HEINKE
Columbus Scripps-Howard Writer

State Treasurer Joseph T. Ferguson and five members of his family are on the state payroll at salaries totaling $50,484 a year.

The records also show that a seventh member of the Ferguson family, James D. Ferguson is on a leave of absence from his $5,520-a-year job in the State Welfare Department to run for state auditor.

IN ADDITION, two members of the family have been drawing overtime pay in the treasurer's office.

The roster of the Fergusons on the state payroll, their jobs and salaries:

Treasurer Ferguson, $15,000.

LEO FERGUSON, Joe's brother, treasurer's office, $7,200.

Mrs. Joan Gotherman, Joe's daughter, treasurer's office, (part-time), $3,960.

Joseph T. Ferguson, Joe's son, highway department, $6,900.

THE RECORDS disclosed that Administrative Aide Tom, considered a likely prospect to run for state treasurer two years from now if his father retires from the active political field, has drawn $271.83 in overtime pay so far this year and in the last two weeks of 1959.

Can Ohio Afford Another Ferguson

The voters probably didn't realize it when they made Joe Ferguson state treasurer, but they were practically electing an entire family.

Joe took care of that—or rather, he took care of the family.

Five of them—two sons, a brother, a daughter, and a sister—are comfortably lodged on the public payroll. The total family salary, including Joe's $15,000 a year, is a neat $50,000.

If the taxpayers can acquire so many Fergusons simply by electing one of them to public office, what do you supose would happen if they elected two?

Remember, that's a real risk, because Joe's son James is running for state auditor.

Before anyone dashes out and votes for another Ferguson, he'd better make sure the state can afford it.

Or that it should afford it.

Rhodes Over Ferguson

It's still three months until Election Day and there's still much campaigning to be done, but there's no reason for anyone to take more time to make up his mind how to vote in the state auditor's race.

There the incumbent, James A. Rhodes, is opposed by James D. Ferguson. Rhodes not only deserves re-election wholeheartedly on his excellent record in office. He deserves it additionally because of a special condition involving Ferguson.

Under the Ohio Constitution, the auditor is the state's chief accounting officer, and it's his main duty to keep full and accurate accounts of all moneys, bonds, stocks, securities and the like paid in or out of the treasury, or deposited in or transferred out of the treasury.

So who is the state treasurer now? Joseph T. Ferguson Sr., the father of James D. Rhodes' opponent.

Besides the matter of principle involved here, there's the elder Ferguson's philosophy to be considered. Joe Ferguson always has liked to get as many of his immediate family on the state payroll as possible. According to the latest list we saw, two of his sons, a daughter, a sister and a brother are so employed now, at annual salaries totaling more than $35,000.

Would another Ferguson in a top state office break ground for the hiring of another batch of Ferguson relatives on the state payroll? We see no reason to doubt that this would happen.

The best way to keep it from happening is to vote against James Ferguson and for Auditor Rhodes who, as we said in the beginning, deserves re-election anyway.

Youngstown Vindicator
Published every day of the year.

Fortunately Mr. Rhodes is a capable auditor, and thoughtful citizens, Republicans and Democratic alike, will wish to retain his services.

Warren Tribune Chronicle

Mr. Rhodes has served with distinction as state auditor. He merits re-election and there should be no question in the minds of Ohio voters that it is in their best interest to return him and balk the Ferguson machine's effort to expand its political power.

Spicy Apple Torte Makes Tasty Fall Dessert

Swing into fall with new ideas for entertaining. Of course, nothing will replace the favored bridge club, but you can begin the season anew with a fancy dessert idea. Spicy Apple Torte is a delightful choice.

A light and spicy apple sauce-gelatin filling is nestled in a crisp ginger nut crumb crust. Make the dessert in the morning and it will be ready for your afternoon party. Just before serving, garnish with a halo of spiced apple sauce studded with slivers of crystalized ginger.

2-3 cup sugar
1 envelope unflavored gelatin
¼ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon nutmeg
½ teaspoon cinnamon
1 can (1 lb.) apple sauce
3 eggs
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Ginger Nut Crumb Crust
Crystalized ginger optional

Mix 1-3 cup of the sugar, gelatin and salt in a saucepan. Add spices to apple sauce, mixing well. Add 1 cup of the spice apple sauce and beaten eggs yolks to gelatin mixture.

Cook over low heat until thickened and gelatin is dissolved, stirring. Add lemon juice. Chill until partially thickened. Beat egg whites until stiff, gradually adding remaining 1-3 cup sugar. Fold into gelatin mixture. Pour into cooled Ginger Nut Crumb Crust; chill until firm. Spoon remaining spiced apple sauce over filling and garnish with slivers of crystallized ginger. Six to eight servings.

Gnger Nut Crumb Crust

Blend 13 cup softened butter with 1 cup fine ginger snap cooky crumbs, ¼ cup sugar and ½ cup finely-chopped nuts, mixing well. Press evenly over bottom and sides of a 9-inch pie plate, forming a small rim. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees) 8 minutes. Cool.

Group Inducts New Minister

The Rev. William L. Claghorn, pastor of the Chester Westminster United Presbyterian Church and moderator of the Wheeling Presbytery, gave the constitutional questions to the Rev. C. Donald Vogel, who was installed as pastor of the Chester First United Presbyterian Church Sunday evening by the presbytery.

Rev. Vogel, formerly an assistant pastor of the East Whittier (Calif.) United Presbyterian Church, succeeds the Rev. Robert Backstrom, now with a church at Niagara Falls. Rev. Fogel began his duties at the Chester church Oct. 9.

Other participants were the Rev. John J. Bates, pastor of the Follansbee Presbyterian Church and stated clerk of the Presbytery; the Rev. Arch W. Webster, pastor of the Wheeling United Presbyterian Church and chairman of the ministerial relations committee of the presbytery, and the Rev. James B. Bailey, pastor of the Oakland United Presbyterian Church in Weirton.

Three different presidents occupied the White House within 30 days at one time in American history. Martin Van Buren went out of office on March 4, 1841, and William Henry Harrison took office on the same day. Thirty days later, John Tyler became president when Harrison died.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I work downtown and the only way I can get there is by bus. Our buses run on the hour. If I take the 8 o'clock bus I get to work right on time, which is 8:45. An earlier bus would mean I'd have to get up an hour sooner.

I get on at the next to the last stop and there's never a seat. A man who gets on at the last stop always stands next to me. I think he is being fresh. When the bus makes a turn he always falls over on me.

The other morning I was pinched by "someone" and jumped a foot. I looked at him and he was gazing innocently out the window.

This man is well-dressed, good-looking and wears a wedding ring. Please tell me what to do. — TRAPPED.

Dear Trapped: Sorry, Honey, but I think you're enjoying those turns, the pinches and all the rest of it. If you weren't, you'd figure out a way to get to the middle of the bus — about 15 people away from "The Pincher."

It would be fairly simple (even on a very crowded bus) to say, "Excuse me," as if you were heading toward the back exit. And then just stand there.

Compulsive Talker

Dear Ann: Is there any way to overcome the talking habit? I am a 54-year-old woman who lives alone. I never see or speak to a soul all day. Then, when I go out for a social evening, and want to be at my best, I find myself talking constantly and I just can't control it.

I'm worse around an important person like a doctor or a lawyer —someone I want to impress.

I never gossip so that's not my problem. I just rattle on and on and hear myself say foolish things. It's almost as if my mind has no control over my tongue.

Is there anything you can suggest that might help me?—TALK TALK TALK.

Dear Talk Talk Talk: You are a compulsive talker. After being alone all day, the verbiage gushes forth because of a need to let off pent-up steam.

Try getting out during the day and talking to people and see if it doesn't help. And when you're trying to impress someone, remember nothing impresses like a good listener.

Kind Remembrance

Dear Ann: Some close friends had a sad happening in their family. They lost an infant son almost at birth. My husband said we should not go to the funeral or send flowers because the baby was only 2 days old.

Several of our friends asked us why we were not at the funeral and now I feel we did the wrong thing. Should we make a condolence call on the family, send them a small gift, some flowers or what?—DIDN'T GO.

Dear Didn't Go: Even though the baby was only 2 days old, he was a human being. You should have attended the funeral, since the bereaved parents were your close friends.

A gift is not in order. A warm note would be appropriate and flowers are always a welcome and thoughtful gesture. A donation to a worthy charity, in memory of their son, would indicate that you remembered.

Confidentially

TO CAN'T UNLOAD HIM: I don't buy it. You're giving him that "Go away closer" routine because you really don't want to unload him.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped self-addressed envelope.

Clevelander, 57, Dies In Crash On Turnpike

NORWALK, Ohio (AP)—As his car plunged down a 100-foot embankment after an early morning collision, John McDonald, 57, of Cleveland, was thrown out and killed, the turnpike patrol reported today.

The patrol said a tractor-trailer rig struck McDonald's car from the rear and pushed it 100 feet along the guardrail before it went over the bank near the Huron River bridge. The accident was one mile east of the Norwalk-Sandusky interchange.

Youngsters Receive Treats

Midland Halloween Fete Draws 500

Some $70 was offered in prizes for costumes. There were 20 individual prizes and one for the largest group of over four persons. Youngsters who did not claim their prizes may go to the Midland News office on 7th St.

Halloweeners were given bags of treats and shown color cartoons. Woodrow Jones was chairman.

Showers Due As Threat For Spook Parade

The weatherman apparently has a "trick" in store for youngsters in the tri-state area who will make their annual Halloween "trick or treat" rounds tonight.

Showers are scheduled to begin this afternoon and may continue into the evening—enough to dampen the ardor of even the hardiest spook.

But the Halloweeners apparently will not have to don topcoats over their costumes. The high this afternoon will be 60 to 70 and the low tonight will be 40-45.

Many of the youngsters will be seeking funds tonight for UNICEF, the United Nations International Childrens Emergency Fund, which helps to provide food and medicine for children in foreign lands.

Approximately $17 was collected for UNICEF Sunday night by the youth of the Calvary Methodist Church, with the Rev. Carl Beighley, pastor, in charge.

About $73 was collected for UNICEF by the MYF of the Orchard Grove Community Methodist Church Sunday under the supervision of Miss Beverly Dailey, councilor.

The group then gathered at the church for refreshments. Miss Dailey was assisted by Mrs. Ralph Badgley and Mrs. James Nottingham.

CERVANTES LIVES AGAIN

Cervantes, the famed 16th century Spanish author, as portrayed by Onacio Lopez Suarez, professor of Spanish literature at Guanajuato University.

In the storied Mexican mountain town of Guanajuato, Don Quixote, Sancho Panza and other immortal characters from the pages of Don Miguel de Cervantes, the famed 16th century author, soldier, poet and adventurer, have become familiar personages in the life of today. A unique theater has brought about the new interest in the Golden Age of Spanish literature.

Each year, in the town plaza of San Roque, in a natural setting of old balconies, Toledo gratings and narrow alleyways, the "Entremeses Cervantinos," or interludes from Cervantes, are staged. The actors are the townspeople themselves — merchants, artisans, students, housewives and children — some 40 of them who speak their lines in Cervantes' glorious Castilian.

The audience made up of tourists and townfolk alike watch the performance from portable stands set up on one side of the plaza. Actors enter and exit from the narrow alleyways to either side of the plaza. Action begins following the appearance of Cervantes who places himself off-stage. A narrator using a public address system sets the scene and describes the action.

At the conclusion of the scene the actors freeze in position. A clattering of hooves announces the coming of Don Quixote, who in full armor and mounted on horseback followed by his servant Sancho Panza on burro, rides across the plaza signaling the end of each interlude.

"Gay lassies adorn the scenery coming down the hill," is this scene described in a Cervantes Interlude.

Victorious swordsman, played by Raul Trujillo, a drug-store clerk, stands over his fallen foes, near end of play.

Don Quixote, on horseback, portrayed by Luis Mario, walks among the "dead" and "wounded" in climax of play. He's followed by his servant, Sancho Panza.

AP Members Meet

Ohio News Leaders Split On Presidential Forecast

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — News executives of Associated Press member newspapers in Ohio are almost evenly divided in their forecasts of the outcome of the Nov. 8 presidential race.

Meeting in Middletown over the weekend for their annual fall session, members of the Associated Press Society of Ohio were polled by secret ballot.

Twenty of the news executives polled indicated their conviction Republican Richard M. Nixon will be the next president, but 18 others reported they expect Democrat John F. Kennedy to be the winner.

The poll was only one of the highlights of the meeting which featured the joint appearance of Ohio's two national committee women, Mrs. Katharine Kennedy Brown, of Dayton, the Republican, and Mrs. Helen T. Gunsett of Van Wert, the Democrat.

Also on the program were James E. Fain, editor of the Dayton Daily News, and Victor Hackler of New York, an Associated Press general executive who is in charge of the organization's election tabulation machinery.

Mrs. Gunsett and Mrs. Brown indicated they believe Ohio's daily newspapers are doing the most complete and the fairest job in their history in reporting the 1960 campaign.

Mrs. Gunsett in her address to the editors pointed out there is no exact measure of fairness and balance in the content of a newspaper reports of a political campaign, but she added:

"This year the Democrats are getting more coverage on their campaign, the newspapers' approach seems to be more fair, and, I am happy to say, there seems to be a definite effort to balance space devoted to the campaign between the parties."

Mrs. Brown commented:

"Ohio's daily newspapers are doing a magnificent job of campaign coverage. It is far more complete than in many years."

Both party leaders stressed the importance of the campaign work now being done by the women of America and indicated disappointment that newspapers, in their reports of the campaign, have failed to give the feminine workers a full measure of credit for their efforts.

Fain gave the society a commentary on the conduct of the campaign by both presidential candidates based on extensive tours with both. At one point he expressed the view that Vice President Nixon was the victim of bad advice when he agreed to meet Sen. Kennedy in a series of radio-television debates.

"Apparently Nixon's advisers thought he would be able to clobber Kennedy in such a situation, but it didn't turn out that way," Fain commented.

Hackler gave the news executives a full rundown on the complex and far-flung election tabulation system of The Associated Press which extends into every county in the nation.

In the poll which showed almost an even division of forecasts on the outcome of the election, 23 of those voting indicated they had cast their personal ballots in 1956 for President Eisenhower while 13 said they had voted for Democrat Adlai E. Stevenson. One of those voting did not indicate his 1956 choice and another said he voted for neither in 1956.

Five of those who said they voted for Eisenhower said they expect Kennedy to win. Only one Stevenson voter forecast a Nixon victory.

Eisenhower Kin Dies

GREENWOOD, Ind. (AP)—Fannie B. Richardson, 58, a cousin of President Eisenhower, who spent 20 years compiling the only complete family genealogy, died Sunday. Mrs. Richardson, who was stricken with cancer two years ago, recently completed "Eisenhower Lineage and Reference, 1691-1957."

Dancing Follows Dinner

After the unmasking, a "G.I. Style" supper was served and dancing followed. The Muscular Dystrophy Fund March wll begin Nov. 20.

Some 100 adults and young people attended a Halloween party Saturday night at St. Jacob's Church, sponsored by the Youth Fellowship. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cook are advisors.

AP Members Meet

Ohio News Leaders Split On Presidential Forecast

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — News executives of Associated Press member newspapers in Ohio are almost evenly divided in their forecasts of the outcome of the Nov. 8 presidential race.

Meeting in Middletown over the weekend for their annual fall session, members of the Associated Press Society of Ohio were polled by secret ballot.

Twenty of the news executives polled indicated their conviction Republican Richard M. Nixon will be the next president, but 18 others reported they expect Democrat John F. Kennedy to be the winner.

The poll was only one of the highlights of the meeting which featured the joint appearance of Ohio's two national committee women, Mrs. Katharine Kennedy Brown, of Dayton, the Republican, and Mrs. Helen T. Gunsett of Van Wert, the Democrat.

Also on the program were James E. Fain, editor of the Dayton Daily News, and Victor Hackler of New York, an Associated Press general executive who is in charge of the organization's election tabulation machinery.

Mrs. Gunsett and Mrs. Brown indicated they believe Ohio's daily newspapers are doing the most complete and the fairest job in their history in reporting the 1960 campaign.

Mrs. Gunsett in her address to the editors pointed out there is no exact measure of fairness and balance in the content of a newspaper reports of a political campaign, but she added:

"This year the Democrats are getting more coverage on their campaign, the newspapers' approach seems to be more fair, and, I am happy to say, there seems to be a definite effort to balance space devoted to the campaign between the parties."

Mrs. Brown commented:

"Ohio's daily newspapers are doing a magnificent job of campaign coverage. It is far more complete than in many years."

Both party leaders stressed the importance of the campaign work now being done by the women of America and indicated disappointment that newspapers, in their reports of the campaign, have failed to give the feminine workers a full measure of credit for their efforts.

Fain gave the society a commentary on the conduct of the campaign by both presidential candidates based on extensive tours with both. At one point he expressed the view that Vice President Nixon was the victim of bad advice when he agreed to meet Sen. Kennedy in a series of radio-television debates.

"Apparently Nixon's advisers thought he would be able to clobber Kennedy in such a situation, but it didn't turn out that way," Fain commented.

Hackler gave the news executives a full rundown on the complex and far-flung election tabulation system of The Associated Press which extends into every county in the nation.

In the poll which showed almost an even division of forecasts on the outcome of the election, 23 of those voting indicated they had cast their personal ballots in 1956 for President Eisenhower while 13 said they had voted for Democrat Adlai E. Stevenson. One of those voting did not indicate his 1956 choice and another said he voted for neither in 1956.

Five of those who said they voted for Eisenhower said they expect Kennedy to win. Only one Stevenson voter forecast a Nixon victory.

Social Security Changes Cited

About 125,000 disabled workers under age 50 and their families are now eligible for social security disability insurance benefits, according to William J. McCauley, district manager of the Youngstown Social Security Office.

Before recent changes in the law, only persons between 50 and 65 could receive disability payments, McCauley said. Those under 50 could have their earnings records frozen, but could not collect benefits.

McCauley said today that most persons under 50 who had had their Social Security records frozen had been contacted by his office and steps taken to start the payment of their benefits.

"If you have had your Social Security record frozen, but have not yet received a letter asking you to get in touch with your Social Security office, you should do so as soon as possible. If you are severely disabled, and worked under Social Security for at least 5 out of the 10 years before you became disabled, you should also contact the office if you have not done so. Disability insurance benefits may be payable to you," he said.

OASI-1960-1, a new leaflet explaining the recent changes in the Social Security Act, is available at the Youngstown office.

Persons unable to stop at the office may phone or write for a copy.

Repair Time's On Hand

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Holidays are just around the corner. It's the time when wives become edgy because husbands aren't buckling down to all the home repairs needed before the social season begins.

Wife can sometimes get him to the task, but the problem is: "Will he finish it?" The tensions created by this strain are enough to spoil the holiday festivities for the entire family.

If the project is big, don't heckle him into it now. A wall job, for instance. Many women tolerate a badly-cracked wall or one full of gouges and holes, and then suddenly expect the man to do the repairs over night, when they decide they can't live with it any longer.

IT IS BETTER to postpone a wall job. A man may just decide that he'll take the wall out completely, perhaps even insulate it, before putting up plaster board or plastering it, and there you are. You can't be sure that it will be finished in time.

A good idea is to cover up the wall during the holidays if you can't get it repaired in time, or if your husband has started a job that is not going to be finished.

Felt, burlap, sailcloth or any other colorful inexpensive material will do the job very successfully. If the wall is in the living part of the house, use it to display your greeting cards, photographs or the children's school efforts. The material may be used later for a number of purposes — slipcover, draperies, tablecloths.

If the walls are scarred and patched and holes aren't too deep, a textured paint could be your solution.

This is a job the lady of the house can do. Quality texture paint has a heavy consistency that fills small holes and camouflages surface irregularities. It produces a rough plaster-like finish that blends handsomely with any style decor as it is available in a wide array of decorator colors.

There is a ready-mixed texture paint and also texture powders which can be added to certain paints to produce the same plaster-like finish. If powder is used, the paint dealer should be consulted as it must be mixed with the proper paint.

AFTER THE wall surface is dusted, and grease smudges removed with soap and water, apply the paint with a brush.

While the wall is still wet, create a pattern by going over the paint with a sponge, whisk broom, comb or any other object to produce a design. There are rollers available that can be used to provide the pattern, if you prefer.

This paint can be used on one wall without detracting from the room's appearance, but it is not meant for woodwork or trim.

Paint the trim the same color if possible in a semi-gloss or flat paint. If the room is very large a darker hue of the same color may be used.

Because of the decorative aspects of texture paint it has special appeal for women. But it is a good idea to make sure that you have a quality paint before you start.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Untrained Tots May Become Vandals

In your neighborhood some children undoubtedly have been engaged in what they think is fun — defacing cars and other personal and public property, sometimes mutilating property and committing all sorts of vandalism. Year by year this practice in some communities seems to begin earlier and earlier in October and to occur more frequently all through the year. Nor is vandalism limited to areas of low income. Indeed, it's often worst in high income suburbs. Thanks to civic organizations and to co-operating parents, Halloween itself may not be a very destructive time.

WHEN PARENTS back the trick-or-treat program of UNICEF; when they provide parties for their children and neighbors' children on Halloween, and when they put an organized and supervised activities on Halloween, the energies and interests of children may be diverted to wholesome fun for the evening.

These are encouraging developments.

But there still remains the problem for all parents to bring up their children, from the time they begin to toddle, to respect the rights and possessions of all other persons. This means eternal vigilance by parents and constant cultivation of desirable inhibitions in the growing child.

But the prevailing theory and practice of bringing up children, with restraints-to-the-winds, will not get sufficient discipline to armor them against becoming vandals.

AND WHEN vandalism by teenagers becomes prevalent on "this side of the tracks", it is apparent that the adolescent vandals failed to learn the alphabet of good citizenship when they were tots and pre-teenagers.

It's manifest that parents in comfortable economic areas, parents of education and social prestige, parents looked up to in their respective counties, are in the most strategic position to help curb vandalism and to reduce juvenile delinquency.

When these parents bring up their own children to respect the rights and possessions of others, less privileged parents will incline to imitate them.

My bulletins, "Teaching Child Care of Property" and "How Juvenile Delinquency Can Be Curbed", may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Ohio News Publisher Dies At 71 In Florida

How To Apply Preservative To Fence Post

AP Newsfeatures

Question: I want to apply liquid wood preservative to some fence posts I will be placing in the ground. Should the preservative be applied with a brush?

Answer: Generally, the preservative can be applied with a brush. However, it is essential that the portion of the posts below ground be treated more intensively than that which will be above ground. One way to do this is to fill a galvanized steel pail about half full of the preservative. Place the lower portion of the post in the pail for a minute or two. The upper portion, which projects above the liquid, can then be coated with a brush. After the treated post has been removed from the pail, place it on some old newspapers so that the drippings do not damage the floor or lawn.

Answer: Putty will last longer if it is painted. However, allow the putty about 24 hours' drying time before putting on the paint. Also, the channel into which the putty is placed should be painted or brushed with linseed oil before application of the putty. This prevents the putty from drying out too quickly.

Warren Man, 50, Dies After Family Shooting

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—William T. Jordan, 50, who shot and killed his wife, wounded his daughter and then shot himself in the head, died Sunday in Trumbull Memorial Hospital.

The shooting of his wife, Patricia, 42, and daughter, Judy, 8, occurred in the Jordan home Saturday. The county coroner ruled the two deaths as homicide and suicide.

National Association Warns Against Buying 'Cheap Paint'

NEW YORK — Home craftsmen often overlook the fact that the most important cost involved in their projects is not the price of the raw materials they use but rather the value of their own labor, the time they spend sawing, hammering, glueing and painting.

When one is working with material that has a measurable life and has to be renewed periodically, such as paint, it is important to buy only the best quality one can afford so as to postpone repeating the job as long as possible.

A paint is no better than the raw materials used in its manufacture and the scientific skill with which it is formulated. Since only high grade raw materials can produce top quality paint, and since the cost of the raw materials is the major cost to any paint manufacturer, it follows that a cheap paint cannot be a high quality paint.

Modern paints are among the most complex chemical products manufactured today, and since the average do-it-yourselfer (or professional painter, for that matter) is not an organic chemist, there is no way for him to determine the quality of a paint by looking at it or even by studying the ingredients listed on the label. While the label may give the percentages of the ingredients used, it gives no clue to the quality of the materials or the skills with which they were combined, or the controls utilized in the manufacturing process to assure uniformity.

The National Paint, Varnish And Lacquer Assn., Inc., says there is, however, one almost infallible method of recognizing a cheap paint. "A cheap paint is always on "sale". It is the kind of paint that is used in free deals of various sorts — 2-for-1, 1-cent sales and the like — as a day-in day-out merchandising policy. These cheap paints are not sold by long established and reputable paint and wallpaper, hardware or department stores.

Some paints are advertised at $8 and $9 a gallon (second gallon free) and the idea is conveyed that the purchaser gets two gallons of comparable paint for the price of one.

Laboratory analyses show that these paints are usually comparable in quality to paints selling at half the stated price. In other words, for his $9, the consumer gets two gallons of $4.50 paint. This is fine, if he intended to buy paint of this quality. But if he buys in the belief he is getting the long-life, hiding power and color retention of a $9 quality paint, he is being defrauded.

Cheap paints, as compared with quality coatings, suffer from at least three deficiencies; they do not retain their color brilliance, they do not hide as well and they do not last as long. What does this mean to the consumer?

The poor color retention is the result of cheap pigments and extenders. In a relatively short time these colors will fade and the surface will look drab and ugly and will have to be repainted years sooner than if high grade paint had been used.

Poor hiding power means that it takes more paint to cover the old surface completely. But this does not mean that one applies merely twice as thick a coat in a single operation. Rather, when a paint with poor hiding power is used, more coats must be applied to get the desired result. Thus twice or three times the labor is involved.

The short life of such paints means, obviously, that repainting will be necessary years sooner than the purchaser believed would be the case when he bought the "sale" paint.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Temperatures will average near normal. Normal high 65 north to 67 south, low 38-39. Cooler Tuesday and in north Wednesday, then gradual warming, until cooler again near end of week. Rainfall will total one-quarter to one-half inch in showers north Tuesday and over state Friday or Saturday.

Social Security Changes Cited

About 125,000 disabled workers under age 50 and their families are now eligible for social security disability insurance benefits, according to William J. McCauley, district manager of the Youngstown Social Security Office.

Before recent changes in the law, only persons between 50 and 65 could receive disability payments, McCauley said. Those under 50 could have their earnings records frozen, but could not collect benefits.

McCauley said today that most persons under 50 who had had their Social Security records frozen had been contacted by his office, and steps taken to start the payment of their benefits.

"If you have had your Social Security record frozen, but have not yet received a letter asking you to get in touch with your Social Security office, you should do so as soon as possible. If you are severely disabled, and worked under Social Security for at least 5 out of the 10 years before you became disabled, you should also contact the office if you have not done so. Disability insurance benefits may be payable to you," he said.

OASI-1960-1, a new leaflet explaining the recent changes in the Social Security Act, is available at the Youngstown office.

Repair Time's On Hand

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Holidays are just around the corner. It's the time when wives become edgy because husbands aren't buckling down to all the home repairs needed before the social season begins.

Wife can sometimes get him to the task, but the problem is: "Will he finish it?" The tensions created by this strain are enough to spoil the holiday festivities for the entire family.

If the project is big, don't heckle him into it now. A wall job, for instance. Many women tolerate a badly-cracked wall or one full of gouges and holes, and then suddenly expect the man to do the repairs over night, when they decide they can't live with it any longer.

IT IS BETTER to postpone a wall job. A man may just decide that he'll take the wall out completely, perhaps even insulate it, before putting up plaster board or plastering it, and there you are. You can't be sure that it will be finished in time.

A good idea is to cover up the wall during the holidays if you can't get it repaired in time, or if your husband has started a job that is not going to be finished.

Felt, burlap, sailcloth or any other colorful inexpensive material will do the job very successfully. If the wall is in the living part of the house, use it to display your greeting cards, photographs or the children's school efforts. The material may be used later for a number of purposes — slipcover, draperies, tablecloths.

If the walls are scarred and patched and holes aren't too deep, a textured paint could be your solution.

This is a job the lady of the house can do. Quality texture paint has a heavy consistency that fills small holes and camouflages surface irregularities. It produces a rough plaster-like finish that blends handsomely with any style decor as it is available in a wide array of decorator colors.

There is a ready-mixed texture paint and also texture powders which can be added to certain paints to produce the same plaster-like finish. If powder is used, the paint dealer should be consulted as it must be mixed with the proper paint.

AFTER THE wall surface is dusted, and grease smudges removed with soap and water, apply the paint with a brush.

While the wall is still wet, create a pattern by going over the paint with a sponge, whisk broom, comb or any other object to produce a design. There are rollers available that can be used to provide the pattern, if you prefer.

This paint can be used on one wall without detracting from the room's appearance, but it is not meant for woodwork or trim.

Paint the trim the same color if possible in a semi-gloss or flat paint. If the room is very large a darker hue of the same color may be used.

Because of the decorative aspects of texture paint it has special appeal for women. But it is a good idea to make sure that you have a quality paint before you start.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Untrained Tots May Become Vandals

In your neighborhood some children undoubtedly have been engaged in what they think is fun — defacing cars and other personal and public property, sometimes mutilating property and committing all sorts of vandalism. Year by year this practice in some communities seems to be gin earlier and earlier in October and to occur more frequently all through the year. Nor is vandalism limited to areas of low income. Indeed, it's often worst in high income suburbs. Thanks to civic organizations and to co-operating parents, Halloween itself may not be a very destructive time.

WHEN PARENTS back the trick-or-treat program of UNICEF; when they provide parties for their children and neighbors' children on Halloween, and when they put an organized and supervised activities on Halloween, the energies and interests of children may be diverted to wholesome fun for the evening.

These are encouraging developments.

But there still remains the problem for all parents to bring up their children, from the time they begin to toddle, to respect the rights and possessions of all other persons. This means eternal vigilance by parents and constant cultivation of desirable inhibitions in the growing child.

But the prevailing theory and practice of bringing up children, with restraints-to-the-winds, will not get sufficient discipline to armor them against becoming vandals.

AND WHEN vandalism by teenagers becomes prevalent on "this side of the tracks", it is apparent that the adolescent vandals failed to learn the alphabet of good citizenship when they were tots and pre-teenagers.

It's manifest that parents in comfortable economic areas, parents of education and social prestige, parents looked up to in their respective counties, are in the most strategic position to help curb vandalism and to reduce juvenile delinquency.

When these parents bring up their own children to respect the rights and possessions of others, less privileged parents will incline to imitate them.

My bulletins, "Teaching Child Care of Property" and "How Juvenile Delinquency Can Be Curbed", may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

How To Apply Preservative To Fence Post

AP Newsfeatures

Question: I want to apply liquid wood preservative to some fence posts I will be placing in the ground. Should the preservative be applied with a brush?

Answer: Generally, the preservative can be applied with a brush. However, it is essential that the portion of the posts below ground be treated more intensively than that which will be above ground. One way to do this is to fill a galvanized steel pail about half full of the preservative. Place the lower portion of the post in the pail for a minute or two. The upper portion, which projects above the liquid, can then be coated with a brush. After the treated post has been removed from the pail, place it on some old newspapers so that the drippings do not damage the floor or lawn.

Answer: Putty will last longer if it is painted. However, allow the putty about 24 hours' drying time before putting on the paint. Also, the channel into which the putty is placed should be painted or brushed with linseed oil before application of the putty. This prevents the putty from drying out too quickly.

Warren Man, 50, Dies After Family Shooting

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—William T. Jordan, 50, who shot and killed his wife, wounded his daughter and then shot himself in the head, died Sunday in Trumbull Memorial Hospital.

The shooting of his wife, Patricia, 42, and daughter, Judy, 8, occurred in the Jordan home Saturday. The county coroner ruled the two deaths as homicide and suicide.

National Association Warns Against Buying 'Cheap Paint'

NEW YORK — Home craftsmen often overlook the fact that the most important cost involved in their projects is not the price of the raw materials they use but rather the value of their own labor, the time they spend sawing, hammering, glueing and painting.

When one is working with material that has a measurable life and has to be renewed periodically, such as paint, it is important to buy only the best quality one can afford so as to postpone repeating the job as long as possible.

A paint is no better than the raw materials used in its manufacture and the scientific skill with which it is formulated. Since only high grade raw materials can produce top quality paint, and since the cost of the raw materials is the major cost to any paint manufacturer, it follows that a cheap paint cannot be a high quality paint.

Modern paints are among the most complex chemical products manufactured today, and since the average do-it-yourselfer (or professional painter, for that matter) is not an organic chemist, there is no way for him to determine the quality of a paint by looking at it or even by studying the ingredients listed on the label. While the label may give the percentages of the ingredients used, it gives no clue to the quality of the materials or the skills with which they were combined, or the controls utilized in the manufacturing process to assure uniformity.

The National Paint, Varnish And Lacquer Assn., Inc., says there is, however, one almost infallible method of recognizing a cheap paint. "A cheap paint is always on "sale". It is the kind of paint that is used in free deals of various sorts — 2-for-1, 1-cent sales and the like — as a day-in day-out merchandising policy. These cheap paints are not sold by long established and reputable paint and wallpaper, hardware or department stores.

Some paints are advertised at $8 and $9 a gallon (second gallon free) and the idea is conveyed that the purchaser gets two gallons of comparable paint for the price of one.

Laboratory analyses show that these paints are usually comparable in quality to paints selling at half the stated price. In other words, for his $9, the consumer gets two gallons of $4.50 paint. This is fine, if he intended to buy paint of this quality. But if he buys in the belief he is getting the long-life, hiding power and color retention of a $9 quality paint, he is being defrauded.

Cheap paints, as compared with quality coatings, suffer from at least three deficiencies; they do not retain their color brilliance, they do not hide as well and they do not last as long. What does this mean to the consumer?

The poor color retention is the result of cheap pigments and extenders. In a relatively short time these colors will fade and the surface will look drab and ugly and will have to be repainted years sooner than if high grade paint had been used.

Poor hiding power means that it takes more paint to cover the old surface completely. But this does not mean that one applies merely twice as thick a coat in a single operation. Rather, when a paint with poor hiding power is used, more coats must be applied to get the desired result. Thus twice or three times the labor is involved.

The short life of such paints means, obviously, that repainting will be necessary years sooner than the purchaser believed would be the case when he bought the "sale" paint.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Temperatures will average near normal. Normal high 65 north to 67 south, low 38-39. Cooler Tuesday and in north Wednesday, then gradual warming, until cooler again near end of week. Rainfall will total one-quarter to one-half inch in showers north Tuesday and over state Friday or Saturday.

Painter Aided By 'Stripping'

By DOUGLAS TUOMEY
Written For Bell Syndicate

Any high - class painter will tell you that the best type of painting work starts with stripping the surfaces to be painted.

By stripping, we mean to take off all hardware and accessories such as doorknobs and plates, the push-plates of swinging doors, electrical plates of sockets and switches, sash lifts, curtain rods, hooks and hangers.

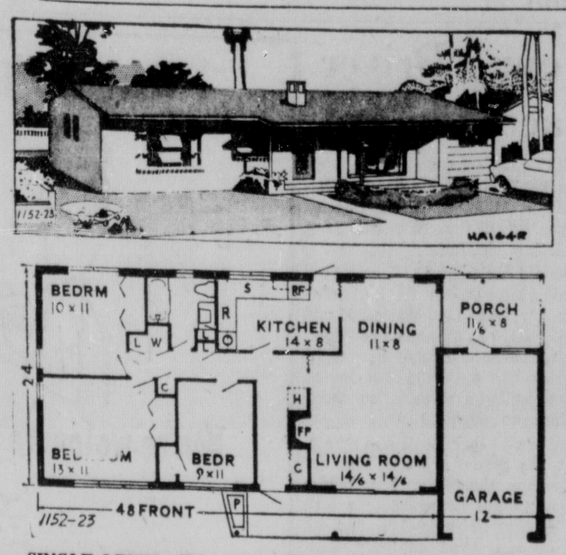
To some home owners this may seem like a lot of unnecessary work, but the fact is that almost every one of the items is secured by means of screws and it is a matter of minutes or a fraction thereof to remove any of them.

Masking tape is quite popular with people who want to avoid going over the line while painting, but in our opinion it is more trouble to cement the tape around a door or wall plate and then remove it then it is to unscrew the plate.

Another difficulty with tape is that sometimes it lifts off the paint where it was not supposed to. Naturally this does not apply to the use of tape on glass when painting a window, since it does a good job in that respect.

As far as speed goes, a professional painter will tell you that when he has an uninterrupted surface to work on he can spread paint twice as fast as when he has to cut around corners and be careful that he does not smear anything.

Interior painting, which is what we are discussing here, is much like exterior painting as far as preparation goes. In one case there are many things to be removed from doors and trim and in the other case there is much scrapping and sandpapering to be done on the weather-worn surface.



SINGLE LEVEL. This seven-room ranch-type home is ideal for people who dislike climbing stairs. All its rooms are on one level. Here Are Bits Of This 'n That Of Interest To Home Owners

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

From various sources come these bits of information of interest to the home owner:

With a few exceptions, bedrooms in English homes have no closets. That's because the English use wardrobes as a standard part of bedroom furniture.

Herman H. York made this and other interesting observations in discussing his assignment earlier this year as supervising architect of the American - style home exhibited during England's 50th "Ideal Home Exposition" in London.

He also noted that American central heating is considered desirable, but the English will buy houses without it; the interior planning of English homes is much less open than in modern American homes, because the English prefer compartmented houses; and most Englishmen think Americans spend too much money unnecessarily on bathroom and kitchen equipment.

For those confused by the different numbers given to fuel oils, here's a breakdown, furnished by the National Fuel Oil Council.

Fuel oil No. 2 leads the list both in production and consumption and is the main home heating oil used in the major types of home heating equipment, in hot water heaters and for similar domestic uses. Kerosene, a widely- known product, which has no number, is ordinarily used for heatings in space-type heaters, in cooking stoves and lamps.

Fuel oil No. 4 is a heavier type of oil used in large heating units, but which does not require preheating before vaporizing in a burner. Fuel oils 5 and 6 are even heavier residual types of oil, are used in large heaters and require preheating. Fuel No. 3 is no longer made.

Painting authorities say that about 90 per cent of paint blistering on the exterior of a house is caused by water vapor created inside the house from showering, cooking, mopping, washing, etc. Very little of this trouble occurs during the months when the windows are open.

Steelmen Eye Output Boost

CLEVELAND (AP) — Steel, the weekly trade journal, said today that market analysts are predicting steelmaking operations will climb to 60 per cent of capacity by Nov. 30 and average about 57 per cent for the month as compared with 54 per cent in October.

The magazine said steelmakers originally thought their customers' inventories would be reduced by one-half to one million tons during the fourth quarter, but now believe the figure may reach as high as two million tons.

It is a remotely possible some buyers may decide to do some last minute hedging against industry wage hikes due Dec. 1, said Steel.

The coming presidential election may give the steel industry a boost, the magazine stated. A victory for Nixon might reassure businessmen and stimulate investment; and a victory for Kennedy might start a stock market rally based on expectations of higher wages, more government spending and inflation, it added.

Steel reported furnaces were operated last week at 53.2 per cent of capacity—2.2 percentage points below the previous week's revised rate. Output was about 1,516,000 ingot tons.

Production for October was 6.9 million tons compared with 6.4 million tons in September. For ten months, the total is 87.3 million tons compared with 74.2 million in the strike-affected corresponding period in 1959.

TV Debates Seen Old Hat To Finns

Finland had TV political discussions for the first time before elections last summer. And instead of two political parties, 10 parties took part.

The group of 40 business and professional men and women, from the city of Tampere, stopped at Cincinnati Sunday on a three-week tour of the United States.

Nikko Nupponen, one of the group leaders, said TV is only two years old in Finland but has even heightened political interest which brings out 75 to 80 per cent of the voters each election.

Finland is sometimes considered a buffer between Russia and the Scandinavian countries. Russia and Finland share a 600-mile frontier.

Nupponen said communists hold 50 of the 200 seats in the parliament but there was little danger of communism taking control.

"We love our independence and freedom," he said.

He said trade pacts with the West, especially England, have bolstered the Finnish economy to the point where it cannot be pressured by Russian embargoes.

Protestant Leaders Speak

Religious Issue Termed 'Useful' Part Of Campaign

CINCINNATI (AP) — Two leading Protestant churchmen say they think debate on the religion issue in the presidential campaign is necessary and useful.

"There are honest differences of opinion between Catholics and Protestants on such questions as education, population control, church and state relationships and the ultimate seat of authority in the realm of faith and morals."

Dr. Lynn J. Radcliffe, pastor of Hyde Park Community Church, Cincinnati's largest Methodist congregation, said in a sermon Sunday:

"Calm, careful and creative consideration should be given to the question of the election of a member of the Roman Catholic Church to be president of the United States."

Dr. Radcliffe, at services that attracted about 1,000 persons, said he thinks the president should consider his oath of office the ultimate authority of conscience and religious duty, and should be supported in this by his church.

A group of 10,000 from Greater Cincinnati churches heard Dr. Dahlberg at the 15th annual faith festival, which marks the anniversary of Martin Luther's 95 theses appearing on the church doors at Wittenberg.

Dr. Dahlberg said he thinks the real American religious philosophy is "the way of clashing ideas, vigorous controversy on a high level and a holy dedication to God in difference rather than regimentation and uniformity."

The festival included a procession of clergy, lay leaders and others, a brass choir and a singing choir of 1,000 voices.

Pistol Wound Claims Parma Chief Of Police

CLEVELAND (AP) — Police Chief Lester A. Roeper of suburban Parma died today of a bullet wound in the head, officials at Community Hospital in Berea reported.

Roeper, 55, had been in the hospital since Oct. 22, when he was found wounded in the bedroom of his home, his service revolver at his side.

The wound was self-inflicted, Acting Chief Fred J. Steyer reported.

Steyer said the chief had been under a doctor's care for several years. Roeper had been in good spirits recently, but became visibly upset when served with a subpoena in connection with a lawsuit against him and two other police officers. That was the day before his wife, Grace, found Roeper fatally wounded.

Boy, 2, Rescued From Deep Well In Pennsylvania

SMITHTON, Pa. (AP) — "That was my brother down there. I knew I had to get him out of there some way."

These were the words of Kenzie Ritenour, 13, several hours after he rescued his brother, Walter, 2 from a 20-foot well.

The youngster fell into the well Sunday while playing. Several men heard the boy screaming for help as he splashed in four feet of water at the bottom.

Kenzie was lowered into the well with a length of rubber tubing wrapped around his waist. The well was only about 20 inches in diameter, too narrow for a man to climb down.

Twice Walter slipped from his brother's grip and fell back into the well. Finally, both boys were pulled out, Kenzie holding tightly to his brother.

Oxygen was administered to the younger boy. Then he was rushed to a hospital at nearby Mount Pleasant. Officials there reported he suffered severe shock and head bruises.

"It was the most shocking thing of my life," said Kenzie Ritenour Sr., father of the two boys. "I'm very proud of Kenzie. That was a pretty heroic thing for him to do."

The Ritenours are residents of Elwood, Ind. They were visiting relatives near this southwestern Pennsylvania community about 30 miles south of Pittsburgh.

Loss Estimated At $94 In Burglary At Calcutta

Burglars obtained three sets of socket wrenches and five men's and women's wrist watches worth a total of $94.20 in an entry early Sunday at the Potters Lumber Co. at St. Clair Plaza on Route 170 near Calcutta, Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan reported at Lisbon.

Entry was made by forcing a side window. The lumber company was checked at 12:30 a. m. and nothing was amiss, but the burglary was discovered at 7 a.m., the sheriff said. Deputy Robert Beresford investigated.

Talks May Avert Greyhound Strike

CHICAGO (AP)—A Greyhound Corp. vice president says he believes negotiators will reach an agreement on a new contract before tonight's midnight deadline, thus averting a possible strike of 12,000 employes.

Earl Cannon said Sunday night negotiators were making satisfactory progress in drawing up a contract to replace the pact which expires at midnight.

The union represents mechanical employes, terminal workers and drivers in the central-southwestern, southeastern and Atlantic divisions of Greyhound.

Negotiations for a new contract covering the firm's eastern division were under way in Cleveland.

In Chicago, both sides refused to discuss what issues were at stake. However, one union official, Joe Morgan, said wages and working conditions were under discussion.

Painter Aided By 'Stripping'

By DOUGLAS TUOMEY
Written For Bell Syndicate

Any high - class painter will tell you that the best type of painting work starts with stripping the surfaces to be painted.

By stripping, we mean to take off all hardware and accessories such as doorknobs and plates, the push-plates of swinging doors, electrical plates of sockets and switches, sash lifts, curtain rods, hooks and hangers.

To some home owners this may seem like a lot of unnecessary work, but the fact is that almost every one of the items is secured by means of screws and it is a matter of minutes or a fraction thereof to remove any of them.

Masking tape is quite popular with people who want to avoid going over the line while painting, but in our opinion it is more trouble to cement the tape around a door or wall plate and then remove it then it is to unscrew the plate.

Another difficulty with tape is that sometimes it lifts off the paint where it was not supposed to. Naturally this does not apply to the use of tape on glass when painting a window, since it does a good job in that respect.

As far as speed goes, a professional painter will tell you that when he has an uninterrupted surface to work on he can spread paint twice as fast as when he has to cut around corners and be careful that he does not smear anything.

Interior painting, which is what we are discussing here, is much like exterior painting as far as preparation goes. In one case there are many things to be removed from doors and trim and in the other case there is much scraping and sandpapering to be done on the weather-worn surface.

Chief features are cross-ventilation through living and dining rooms and an L-shaped work counter in the kitchen. The architect is Jan Reiner, Po. O. Here Are Bits Of This 'n That Of Interest To Home Owners

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

From various sources come these bits of information of interest to the home owner:

With a few exceptions, bedrooms in English homes have no closets. That's because the English use wardrobes as a standard part of bedroom furniture.

Herman H. York made this and other interesting observations in discussing his assignment earlier this year as supervising architect of the American - style home exhibited during England's 50th "Ideal Home Exposition" in London.

He also noted that American central heating is considered desirable, but the English will buy houses without it; the interior planning of English homes is much less open than in modern American homes, because the English prefer compartmented houses; and most Englishmen think Americans spend too much money unnecessarily on bathroom and kitchen equipment.

For those confused by the different numbers given to fuel oils, here's a breakdown, furnished by the National Fuel Oil Council.

Fuel oil No. 2 leads the list both in production and consumption and is the main home heating oil used in the major types of home heating equipment, in hot water heaters and for similar domestic uses. Kerosene, a widely- known product, which has no number, is ordinarily used for heatings in space-type heaters, in cooking stoves and lamps.

Fuel oil No. 4 is a heavier type of oil used in large heating units, but which does not require preheating before vaporizing in a burner. Fuel oils 5 and 6 are even heavier residual types of oil, are used in large heaters and require preheating. Fuel No. 3 is no longer made.

Painting authorities say that about 90 per cent of paint blistering on the exterior of a house is caused by water vapor created inside the house from showering, cooking, mopping, washing, etc. Very little of this trouble occurs during the months when the windows are open.

Boy, 2, Rescued From Deep Well In Pennsylvania

SMITHTON, Pa. (AP) — "That was my brother down there. I knew I had to get him out of there some way."

These were the words of Kenzie Ritenour, 13, several hours after he rescued his brother, Walter, 2 from a 20-foot well.

The youngster fell into the well Sunday while playing. Several men heard the boy screaming for help as he splashed in four feet of water at the bottom.

Kenzie was lowered into the well with a length of rubber tubing wrapped around his waist. The well was only about 20 inches in diameter, too narrow for a man to climb down.

Twice Walter slipped from his brother's grip and fell back into the well. Finally, both boys were pulled out, Kenzie holding tightly to his brother.

Oxygen was administered to the younger boy. Then he was rushed to a hospital at nearby Mount Pleasant. Officials there reported he suffered severe shock and head bruises.

"It was the most shocking thing of my life," said Kenzie Ritenour Sr., father of the two boys. "I'm very proud of Kenzie. That was a pretty heroic thing for him to do."

The Ritenours are residents of Elwood, Ind. They were visiting relatives near this southwestern Pennsylvania community about 30 miles south of Pittsburgh.

Loss Estimated At $94 In Burglary At Calcutta

Burglars obtained three sets of socket wrenches and five men's and women's wrist watches worth a total of $94.20 in an entry early Sunday at the Potters Lumber Co. at St. Clair Plaza on Route 170 near Calcutta, Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan reported at Lisbon.

Entry was made by forcing a side window. The lumber company was checked at 12:30 a. m. and nothing was amiss, but the burglary was discovered at 7 a.m., the sheriff said. Deputy Robert Beresford investigated.

Talks May Avert Greyhound Strike

CHICAGO (AP)—A Greyhound Corp. vice president says he believes negotiators will reach an agreement on a new contract before tonight's midnight deadline, thus averting a possible strike of 12,000 employes.

Earl Cahnon said Sunday night negotiators were making satisfactory progress in drawing up a contract to replace the pact which expires at midnight.

The union represents mechanical employes, terminal workers and drivers in the central-southwestern, southeastern and Atlantic divisions of Greyhound.

Negotiations for a new contract covering the firm's eastern division were under way in Cleveland.

In Chicago, both sides refused to discuss what issues were at stake. However, one union official, Joe Morgan, said wages and working conditions were under discussion.

Steelmen Eye Output Boost

CLEVELAND (AP) — Steel, the weekly trade journal, said today that market analysts are predicting steelmaking operations will climb to 60 per cent of capacity by Nov. 30 and average about 57 per cent for the month as compared with 54 per cent in October.

The magazine said steelmakers originally thought their customers' inventories would be reduced by one-half to one million tons during the fourth quarter, but now believe the figure may reach as high as two million tons.

It is a remotely possible some buyers may decide to do some last minute hedging against industry wage hikes due Dec. 1, said Steel.

The coming presidential election may give the steel industry a boost, the magazine stated. A victory for Nixon might reassure businessmen and stimulate investment; and a victory for Kennedy might start a stock market rally based on expectations of higher wages, more government spending and inflation, it added.

Steel reported furnaces were operated last week at 53.2 per cent of capacity—2.2 percentage points below the previous week's revised rate. Output was about 1,516,000 ingot tons.

Production for October was 6.9 million tons compared with 6.4 million tons in September. For ten months, the total is 87.3 million tons compared with 74.2 million in the strike-affected corresponding period in 1959.

TV Debates Seen Old Hat To Finns

Finland had TV political discussions for the first time before elections last summer. And instead of two political parties, 10 parties took part.

The group of 40 business and professional men and women, from the city of Tampere, stopped at Cincinnati Sunday on a three-week tour of the United States.

Nikko Nupponen, one of the group leaders, said TV is only two years old in Finland but has even heightened political interest which brings out 75 to 80 per cent of the voters each election.

Finland is sometimes considered a buffer between Russia and the Scandinavian countries. Russia and Finland share a 600-mile frontier.

Nupponen said communists hold 50 of the 200 seats in the parliament but there was little danger of communism taking control.

"We love our independence and freedom," he said.

He said trade pacts with the West, especially England, have bolstered the Finnish economy to the point where it cannot be pressured by Russian embargoes.

Protestant Leaders Speak

Religious Issue Termed 'Useful' Part Of Campaign

CINCINNATI (AP) — Two leading Protestant churchmen say they think debate on the religion issue in the presidential campaign is necessary and useful.

"There are honest differences of opinion between Catholics and Protestants on such questions as education, population control, church and state relationships and the ultimate seat of authority in the realm of faith and morals."

Dr. Lynn J. Radcliffe, pastor of Hyde Park Community Church, Cincinnati's largest Methodist congregation, said in a sermon Sunday:

"Calm, careful and creative consideration should be given to the question of the election of a member of the Roman Catholic Church to be president of the United States."

Dr. Radcliffe, at services that attracted about 1,000 persons, said he thinks the president should consider his oath of office the ultimate authority of conscience and religious duty, and should be supported in this by his church.

A group of 10,000 from Greater Cincinnati churches heard Dr. Dahlberg at the 15th annual faith festival, which marks the anniversary of Martin Luther's 95 theses appearing on the church doors at Wittenberg.

Dr. Dahlberg said he thinks the real American religious philosophy is "the way of clashing ideas, vigorous controversy on a high level and a holy dedication to God in difference rather than regimentation and uniformity."

The festival included a procession of clergy, lay leaders and others, a brass choir and a singing choir of 1,000 voices.

Pistol Wound Claims Parma Chief Of Police

CLEVELAND (AP) — Police Chief Lester A. Roeper of suburban Parma died today of a bullet wound in the head, officials at Community Hospital in Berea reported.

Roeper, 55, had been in the hospital since Oct. 22, when he was found wounded in the bedroom of his home, his service revolver at his side.

The wound was self-inflicted, Acting Chief Fred J. Steyer reported.

Steyer said the chief had been under a doctor's care for several years. Roeper had been in good spirits recently, but became visibly upset when served with a subpoena in connection with a lawsuit against him and two other police officers. That was the day before his wife, Grace, found Roeper fatally wounded.

The damage suit against the chief alleged false arrest and had been filed nearly three years ago.

Parties Slate Tough Battles In New York

By ROBERT T. GRAY

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Top Republicans and Democrats will wage a knock-down, drag-out fight in New York this week in the face of growing evidence that the state's prized 45 electoral votes may be won by Sen. John F. Kennedy.

The forces of Republican Richard M. Nixon are privately apprehensive as they go all out in what now is widely considered an uphill presidential battle in this key state.

Kennedy's Democratic forces will use front-rank campaigners to defend a position regarded by some as a precarious edge and by others as a comfortable margin.

The New York Daily News poll, conducted through secret balloting, indicates Kennedy has a lead of about 5 to 4.

A shift by Roman Catholic Republicans to support Kennedy, a Catholic, is considered a major factor in his New York showing.

But Republicans point to President Eisenhower's 1.6 million vote plurality in this state in 1956. They say the party has sufficient strength to withstand any Kennedy inroads.

Neither Republican nor Democratic leaders are willing to make official forecasts on the margin of victory they expect. Republicans are aiming for a million-vote margin outside of New York City. They feel this would overcome any Kennedy edge within the heavily Democratic city.

New York, the most populous state, apparently has a record registration this year of 8.4 million voters, an increase of nearly 700,000 over 1956. The official 1960 total has not been announced.

Unofficial figures show 4.8 million voters registered in the upstate and Long Island area, which has been staunchly Republican.

There are 3.6 million registered voters in New York City. They include large blocs of Irish-American, Puerto Rican and Italian-Americans, all heavily Roman Catholic, as well as Jewish and Negro groups.

New York has supported Republican presidential candidates in 10 of 15 elections in this century. It backed Democrat Franklin D. Roosevelt, native son, four times, Woodrow Wilson once in a three-way race. The state administration, legislative majorities both U.S. senators and most U.S. representatives are Republican.

In this campaign, Republicans say:

1. Since New York is a Republican state, Nixon could run far behind Eisenhower and still win. Polls indicating a Kennedy victory are not sufficiently representative of the strongest Republican areas.

Many Democratic strategists make a major error in assuming there will be overwhelming shifts of Republican Catholics to Kennedy. Many Catholics will vote for Nixon in support of what they consider a stronger Republican stand against communism and sounder approach to fiscal matters.

The Democrats say:

1. We have been making slow but steady gains in recent years in strongly Republican areas. Kennedy will win a large enough plurality in New York City and cut deeply enough into Nixon strength upstate to win.

2. In addition to Catholic support, Kennedy will win ballots from voters who were impressed by his showing in the televised debates with Nixon and his broad appeal to voters.

13 Boards Ordered To Keep Attorney's Name On Ballots

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Secretary of State Ted W. Brown has ordered 13 county election boards in the seventh appellate court district to keep the name of Republican Paul Brown, Youngstown attorney, on Nov. 8 ballots as a candidate for appellate court judge.

The secretary of state asserted a ruling by Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy hitting the candidacy of Paul Brown did not apply to the Youngstown man.

McElroy held that the case was covered by a state law barring from the general election any candidate by petition or write-in who ran in the previous primary. The Youngstown attorney was defeated in the May primary for the Republican nomination for Ohio Supreme Court judge.

But the secretary of state contended the law did not apply because the Youngstown attorney was selected by GOP committees in the district as a candidate for an unexpired term.

A vacancy was created by the death of Judge Elmer R. Phillips whose term expires Feb. 8, 1963. Gov. Michael V. DiSalle appointed William Allman, former assistant state welfare director, to the vacancy and Allman is the Democratic candidate for election to serve out the term.

Fund Losses Charged To Follansbee Squire

WELLSBURG, W. Va. (AP) — Prosecutor Ralph Pryor planned to discuss with Brooke County officials today what charges, if any, would be placed against a magistrate in connection with a $20,643 shortage.

Pryor said an attorney for Justice of the Peace Angelo B. Ciccolella of Follansbee had told him the money would be repaid during the weekend. None had been turned in by last night, Pryor said.

A State Tax Commission audit uncovered the shortage, which covered the period from April 30, 1959, to Sept. 20, 1960. The county school fund stood to lose $20,571 as a result of the shortage, Pryor said.

Ciccolella, married and the father of eight children, is unopposed for re-election Nov. 8. He is a Democrat.

Young Driver Faces Charge

A Clinton area youth has posted a $30.50 bond for a hearing Saturday at 11 a. m. before Chester Mayor Ray Collins on a charge of hazardous driving.

Donald McMichael, 17, was cited Sunday after 1:30 a. m. by Patrolman Clarence Lennens, who said McMichael ran through a red light, crossed over a double line twice to pass two cars and traveled 60 miles an hour through an intersection on Carolina Ave.

Cardwell Gage of Hampton, Va., has posted a $15.50 bond for a hearing tonight at 7:30 before Mayor Collins for crashing a traffic light at Carolina Ave. and 4th St. He was cited Saturday night by Patrolman Lennens.

Robert Vernon Burns of Salineville forfeited a $30.50 bond when he failed to appear for a hearing Saturday morning before Mayor Collins on a charge of reckless operation. He posted the bond Thursday night after he was cited on Louisiana Ave. on a complaint made by Charles Taylor of Florida Ave.

New York City Given Another 'Bomb' Scare

NEW YORK (AP) — The city had another Sunday bomb scare Sunday night in the Times Square area, but it proved to be more sound than fury.

No one was injured and there was no damage when a small powder charge in a wax-covered cylinder flashed with a loud hiss in a subway station telephone booth.

Bomb squad officials said the flash apparently had no connection with the bombs that have exploded in the city in recent weeks.

13 Boards Ordered To Keep Attorney's Name On Ballots

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Secretary of State Ted W. Brown has ordered 13 county election boards in the seventh appellate court district to keep the name of Republican Paul Brown, Youngstown attorney, on Nov. 8 ballots as a candidate for appellate court judge.

The secretary of state asserted a ruling by Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy hitting the candidacy of Paul Brown did not apply to the Youngstown man.

McElroy held that the case was covered by a state law barring from the general election any candidate by petition or write-in who ran in the previous primary. The Youngstown attorney was defeated in the May primary for the Republican nomination for Ohio Supreme Court judge.

But the secretary of state contended the law did not apply because the Youngstown attorney was selected by GOP committees in the district as a candidate for an unexpired term.

A vacancy was created by the death of Judge Elmer R. Phillips whose term expires Feb. 8, 1965. Gov. Michael V. DiSalle appointed William Allman, former assistant state welfare director, to the vacancy and Allman is the Democratic candidate for election to serve out the term.

Fund Losses Charged To Follansbee Squire

WELLSBURG, W. Va. (AP) — Prosecutor Ralph Pryor planned to discuss with Brooke County officials today what charges, if any, would be placed against a magistrate in connection with a $30,643 shortage.

Pryor said an attorney for Justice of the Peace Angelo B. Ciccolella of Follansbee had told him the money would be repaid during the weekend. None had been turned in by last night, Pryor said.

A State Tax Commission audit uncovered the shortage, which covered the period from April 30, 1959, to Sept. 30, 1960. The county school fund stood to lose $30,571 as a result of the shortage, Pryor said.

Ciccolella, married and the father of eight children, is unopposed for re-election Nov. 8. He is a Democrat.

Young Driver Faces Charge

A Clinton area youth has posted a $30.50 bond for a hearing Saturday at 11 a. m. before Chester Mayor Ray Collins on a charge of hazardous driving.

Donald McMichael, 17, was cited Sunday after 1:30 a. m. by Patrolman Clarence Lennens, who said McMichael ran through a red light, crossed over a double line twice to pass two cars and traveled 60 miles an hour through an intersection on Carolina Ave.

Cardwell Gage of Hampton, Va., has posted a $15.50 bond for a hearing tonight at 7:30 before Mayor Collins for crashing a traffic light at Carolina Ave. and 4th St. He was cited Saturday night by Patrolman Lennens.

Robert Vernon Burns of Salineville forfeited a $30.50 bond when he failed to appear for a hearing Saturday morning before Mayor Collins on a charge of reckless operation. He posted the bond Thursday night after he was cited on Louisiana Ave. on a complaint made by Charles Taylor of Florida Ave.

New York City Given Another 'Bomb' Scare

NEW YORK (AP) — The city had another Sunday bomb scare Sunday night in the Times Square area, but it proved to be more sound than fury.

No one was injured and there was no damage when a small powder charge in a wax-covered cylinder flashed with a loud hiss in a subway station telephone booth.

The Cook Controls The Calories

By Ida Jean Kain

It's up to the cook to spot the calorie gremlins that slyly sneak into the pot. These hidden calories need to be tossed out — the fat in the gravy, the rich sauces on vegetables, and the double crust on the pie. This is a calorie - conscious age due to our radically changed way of life. Today, the loving wife and mother is the one who helps her family eat well without adding extra weight.

The ingenious cook can find ways to subtract hidden calories without subtracting from flavor or the true goodness of dishes. Homemakers, begin calorie control when you plan the meals, follow through when marketing and carry on in the kitchen. (By the way, we've found it is not a good plan to shop when hungry!)

TO LIGHTEN THE meal pattern: If soup is a favorite with the family, try making "cream" soups with skim milk. To add a gourmet touch, garnish soup with chopped parsley, dusted with paprika, a thin slice of lemon or orange, radish or cucumber...for no calories. In canned soups made from stock, remove fat from the top before heating.

To make low calorie gravy, the fat should first be removed. A good plan is to pour off part of the liquid when the roast is three-fourths done. Refrigerate this liquid in order that fat may congeal on top and be skimmed off.

By this plan the gravy can be ready when the meat is cooked. A bit of Kitchen Bouquet may be added for color and flavor.

Plan to include one starch only per meal. For example, there's no need for rolls or bread and potato. When serving a macaroni casserole dish, avoid serving potatoes, lima beans or other starchy food. When serving potatoes, choose other vegetables of a low starch content.

To retain full flavor, all vegetables should be cooked quickly in a minmum of water and, if possible, served promptly. Over-cooking is ruinous to vegetables. The French add wet lettuce leaves instead of water to cook many vegetables, using a heavy utensil. Pique vegetable flavors and curb calories by using lemon juice and only a speck of butter.

FOR MOST MEALS, keep desserts on the light side. Fruit cup with a drop of vanilla needs no sweetening; broiled grapefruit with a little brown sugar is delightful; equally good for canned peaches topped with browned meringue, minted pineapple chunks, and strawberry angel cake.

If favorite family desserts are on the rich side, reserve them for those special occasions. Even a birthday cake can be low in calories, such as angel cake. To liven the flavor of angel cake mix, add a teaspoon of vanilla and a teaspoon of lemon extract.

Send stamped, self-addressed, long envelope for "Revised Calorie Chart." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain in care of this newspaper. Post card requests cannot be answered.

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

An opening kickoff never proved so costly to an East Liverpool team as it did Saturday night in Steubenville's Harding Stadium.

EAST LIVERPOOL could have thrown in the towel then and there with still more than 47 minutes to play, but didn't.

The Potters still had the fire, but were without the big spark that has ignited them all season.

In making the tackle, Cunningham was struck in the head by Erosheovich's churning knee. The Potter quarterback tried to get up but was dazed and fell to the ground.

CUNNINGHAM will be back at practice today, Venditti said, and will be ready for the Salem game. Douglas must take a few days off.

Steubenville Central, after stopping a Potter drive on the 11-yard line early in the first quarter, struck for a first-period touchdown and scored twice in the second period. The Crusaders, who captured their fifth game in seven starts, capped the scoring with a pair of TD's in the fourth quarter.

Kenny and halfback Tom Eroshevich scored two touchdowns each for the Crusaders. Kenny tallied from the 7- and 2-yard lines, while Eroshevich rambled 70 yards with an intercepted pass late in the fourth quarter and scored another from 9 yards out.

Geon made a brilliant catch on a pass from Craig O'Neil, which was tipped by a Central defender. It went right into the hands of Geon as he was racing toward the end zone on about the Central 5-yard line. The play covered 27-yards.

THOMPSON cracked over from the 1-yard line in the third quarter for the other TD.

The statistics leaned toward the Potters, who outgained Steubenville rushing 183-160 and showed an overall attack of 285 yards with 102 yards coming through the air.

With Cunningham out of the lineup, O'Neil, a regular defensive back who is the understudy at quarterback, received his first opportunity to run the team and turned in an excellent job.

O'Neil, who is a senior, ran the team on the ground flawlessly and when called upon to pass he came through in clutch situations. He hit on 6 of 15 attempts, with one good for a touchdown. His passing netted 102 yards.

John Goodballet piled up his best yardage of the season. Bulling his way for every yard he got Saturday, Goodballet gained 98 yards to lead the Potter runners. Thompson picked up 50 yards.

He picked up 44 yards and did the punting for the Potters. His quick thinking in the third quarter saved East Liverpool from further trouble.

Cunningham, Douglas Injured; Thompson Geon Tally TD's

A fumble following a Steubenville punt late in the first period opened the door for Central's first touchdown. Goodballet, playing deep for the punt, touched the ball then let it lay on about the Potter 20-yard line.

A 5-yard penalty and short yardage by Tom Eroshevich and Jerry France moved the ball to the Potter 7 from where Kenny shot over with 1:52 remaining in the opening period. A Forsaglio-to-France pass was good for the conversion.

In the second quarter Kraft got away a poor punt which sailed into the stands. It was good for only four yards, going out of bounds on the Potter 36.

Central kicked off and Thompson fumbled the kickoff with Steubenville recovering on the Potter 37. A Kenny-to-Kenny pass for 17 yards and Paul Kenny's 15 yard streak to the 2-yard line set up the third Central score. Kenny went over a play later.

Ignited by a 25-yard run by Thompson which carried the Potters to midfield, ELHS then got rolling for it's first touchdown.

Goodballet faked a pass and ran 16 yards to the Steubenville 32, then got five more yards to the Central 27. A play later O'Neil fired to Geon. A pass for the conversion failed.

EAST LIVERPOOL followers came to their feet in the third quarter when the Potters took the second half kickoff and marched 70 yards to the Steubenville 1-yard line from where Thompson with 5:56 remaining in the third period.

O'Neil passed to Archer for the conversion and the Potters were back in the game, having cut Central's lead to 20-14.

After one first down, the Potter attack bogged down and going into the fourth quarter Central began to march again.

The Potters, going to the air late in the game, saw a pass intercepted by Tom Eroshevich. He raced down the west sidelines for 70 yards. Only 48 seconds remained on the clock when he crossed the goal.

Several of the Blue and White gridders were bothered by bruises and leg cramps and Larry Crook remained in City Hospital Saturday night after fainting on the bus as the team returned to East Liverpool. He was released Sunday morning.

Bellaire Tops St. Aloysius

A strong Bellaire St. John's eleven crushed St. Aloysius 42-6 Sunday at Bellaire.

Bellaire's Bill Davis scored three touchdowns and halfback Rich Boran ran for a pair. Quarterback Jim Mager, who was doing all of the touchdown passing, capped the scoring when he returned a kickoff 50 yards.

Pitt's Sterling Upset Marks College Picture

Associated Press Sports Writer

About this stage of the college football season some of the teams that have been establishing fine reputations begin popping stitches and coming apart at the seams from the rigors of all-major schedules.

It happened last Saturday to Syracuse, the 1959 national champion; to Baylor, and, to a lesser extent, to second-ranked Mississippi. As a result only seven major teams go into November with clean records.

They are Missouri, Navy, Utah State and New Mexico State, all seven-game winners, and Iowa, Minnesota and Yale, each 6-0. And look what's in store for them.

Iowa, ranked No. 1 in The Associated Press poll and candidate No. 1 for the Rose Bowl invitation, runs into the big tough Minnesota team that has been a source of embarrassment to the folks who wanted to fire Coach Murray Warmath a year ago. Iowa had something less than an easy time last Saturday beating Kansas 21-7 while sixth-ranked Minnesota rolled over Kansas State 48-7.

Navy, for whom Joe Bellino pulled out a 14-7 decision over Notre Dame, encounters Duke, a 6-0 winner over Georgia Tech. Both teams are very much in the bowl picture at this stage.

Missouri, scoring the first time it got the ball for the fifth time in seven games, whomped Nebraska 28-0. Colorado, tied with the Tigers for the Big Eight lead, had trouble beating the same Nebraska team two weeks ago but staged a joyous celebraion after last Saturday's 7-0 decision over Oklahoma.

Utah State and Wyoming share the Skyline Conference lead after beating Brigham Young 34-0 and Utah 17-7, respectively. Southern Cal, 21-6 winner over Stanford, and Washington, 7-6 victor over Oregon, share the top spot in the Big Five. The winner likely will represent the West in the Rose Bowl.

Since Mississippi was held to a hard-won 6-6 tie by Louisiana State, Tennessee, also tied but unbeaten, is in a good spot to bid for the Southeastern Conference title. The Vols trimmed North Carolina 27-14 Saturday. Ole Miss and Tennessee meet Nov. 12.

Baylor yielded the Southwest Conference lead to Rice and dropped into a second-place tie with Arkansas after losing 14-6 to Texas Christian, which had won only one previous game. How long this situation will last is debatable. Arkansas, which conquered Texas A&M 7-3 in a Saturday night game, is the next Rice opponent while Baylor faces Texas, 17-7 winner over SMU.

Syracuse, lacking the strong two-way interior lineman who made last year's Sizeable Seven so formidable, was ouplayed and beaten 10-0 by a Pittsburgh team whose 3-2-2 record hardly is a true measure of s strength. Both Pitt losses were by one point.

Those upsets weren't the day's real shockers, however. The defeat of previously unbeaten Rutgers by non-winning Villanova, 14-12; George Washington's 20-6 victory over the Air Force and the 44-6 score Columbia rolled up against Cornell were among the more surprising results.

Leatherberry, Dunlap Richards Pace Indians

SALINEVILLE — Victories have been few and far between for Salineville this season, but the Indians broke a first-period tie and went on to defeat Newell, 18-6, here Saturday.

While Salineville was picking up its second victory in 8 games, Coach Pete Horozko's Newell eleven dropped its eighth straight. Both schools close their seasons next Saturday.

Two plays later Ron Noland scooted over from 10 yards away to knot the score at 6-6. A placement failed.

A drive that started late in the first quarter was climaxed in the second period when Nick Richards plunged over from the one to put Salineville in front, 12-6, for a lead it never lost. The drive covered 80 yards.

Newell passed most of the afternoon, attempting 26 times and completing 8. Mick Staley was doing most of the throwing.

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

An opening kickoff never proved so costly to an East Liverpool team as it did Saturday night in Steubenville's Harding Stadium.

The kickoff became the turning point of the game which swung a 34-14 victory in the direction of Steubenville Central.

The Potters lost their passing star, Kenny Cunningham, and starting left halfback Allan Douglas on the opening boot which set the pattern for East Liverpool's third loss of the season.

EAST LIVERPOOL could have thrown in the towel then and there with still more than 47 minutes to play, but didn't.

The Potters still had the fire, but were without the big spark that has ignited them all season.

Cunningham went in low for a crashing tackle which sent Erosovich tumbling through the air on the Steubenville 35-yard line.

In making the tackle, Cunningham was struck in the head by Erosheovich's churning knee. The Potter quarterback tried to get up but was dazed and fell to the ground.

Meanwhile, Douglas had been slammed in the ribs and had to leave the game. X-rays revealed only bruised ribs.

CUNNINGHAM will be back at practice today, Venditti said, and will be ready for the Salem game. Douglas must take a few days off.

Steubenville Central, after stopping a Potter drive on the 11-yard line early in the first quarter, struck for a first-period touchdown and scored twice in the second period. The Crusaders, who captured their fifth game in seven starts, capped the scoring with a pair of TD's in the fourth quarter.

Kenny and halfback Tom Eroshevich scored two touchdowns each for the Crusaders. Kenny tallied from the 7- and 2-yard lines, while Eroshevich rambled 70 yards with an intercepted pass late in the fourth quarter and scored another from 9 yards out.

Geon made a brilliant catch on a pass from Craig O'Neil, which was tipped by a Central defender. It went right into the hands of Geon as he was racing toward the end zone on about the Central 5-yard line. The play covered 27-yards.

THOMPSON cracked over from the 1-yard line in the third quarter for the other TD.

The statistics leaned toward the Potters, who outgained Steubenville rushing 183-160 and showed an overall attack of 285 yards with 102 yards coming through the air.

With Cunningham out of the lineup, O'Neil, a regular defensive back who is the understudy at quarterback, received his first opportunity to run the team and turned in an excellent job.

O'Neil, who is a senior, ran the team on the ground flawlessly and when called upon to pass he came through in clutch situations. He hit on 6 of 15 attempts, with one good for a touchdown. His passing netted 102 yards.

East Liverpool's running attack was at its best as the Potters ripped the right side of the Central line most of the evening.

John Goodballet piled up his best yardage of the season. Bulling his way for every yard he got Saturday, Goodballet gained 98 yards to lead the Potter runners. Thompson picked up 50 yards.

He picked up 44 yards and did the punting for the Potters. His quick thinking in the third quarter saved East Liverpool from further trouble.

EAST LIVERPOOL had its bad moments though, especially in the first half.

A fumble following a Steubenville punt late in the first period opened the door for Central's first touchdown. Goodballet, playing deep for the punt, touched the ball then let it lay on about the Potter 20-yard line.

He figured Thompson cutting in back of him would pick up the ball, but before he could Steve Eroshevich recovered for the Crusaders on the 20.

A 5-yard penalty and short yardage by Tom Eroshevich and Jerry France moved the ball to the Potter 7 from where Kenny shot over with 1:52 remaining in the opening period. A Forsaglio-to-France pass was good for the conversion.

In the second quarter Kraft got away a poor punt which sailed into the stands. It was good for only four yards, going out of bounds on the Potter 36.

Central kicked off and Thompson fumbled the kickoff with Steubenville recovering on the Potter 37. A Kenny-to-Kenny pass for 17 yards and Paul Kenny's 15 yard streak to the 2-yard line set up the third Central score. Kenny went over a play later.

Ignited by a 25-yard run by Thompson which carried the Potters to midfield, ELHS then got rolling for it's first touchdown.

Goodballet faked a pass and ran 16 yards to the Steubenville 32, then got five more yards to the Central 27. A play later O'Neil fired to Geon. A pass for the conversion failed.

EAST LIVERPOOL followers came to their feet in the third quarter when the Potters took the second half kickoff and marched 70 yards to the Steubenville 1-yard line from where Thompson with 5:56 remaining in the third period.

O'Neil passed to Archer for the conversion and the Potters were back in the game, having cut Central's lead to 20-14.

After one first down, the Potter attack bogged down and going into the fourth quarter Central began to march again.

The Crusaders went to the Potter 9-yard line, from where Tom Eroshevich busted over for six points.

The Potters, going to the air late in the game, saw a pass intercepted by Tom Eroshevich. He raced down the west sidelines for 70 yards. Only 48 seconds remained on the clock when he crossed the goal.

Several of the Blue and White gridders were bothered by bruises and leg cramps and Larry Crook remained in City Hospital Saturday night after fainting on the bus as the team returned to East Liverpool. He was released Sunday morning.

Bellaire Tops St. Aloysius

St. John's scored in the first three periods, jumping off to a 16-0 lead in the first quarter.

Bellaire's Bill Davis scored three touchdowns and halfback Rich Boran ran for a pair. Quarterback Jim Mager, who was doing all of the touchdown passing, capped the scoring when he returned a kickoff 10 yards.

Paul DeVille scored the other United touchdown on a 10-yard gallop.

Salineville Trips Newell

Leatherberry, Dunlap Richards Pace Indians

SALINEVILLE — Victories have been few and far between for Salineville this season, but the Indians broke a first-period tie and went on to defeat Newell, 18-6, here Saturday.

While Salineville was picking up its second victory in 8 games, Coach Pete Horozko's Newell eleven dropped its eighth straight. Both schools close their seasons next Saturday.

All of Salineville's scoring was the result of sustained drives. Newell took advantage of a fumble deep in Salineville territory to score its lone TD.

Three backs shared in the scoring for Coach Al Girone's team. Sticking strictly to the ground, the Indians marched 78 yards in the opening period, with Bud Leatherberry crashing over from the one.

Two plays later Ron Noland scooted over from 10 yards away to knot the score at 6-6. A placement failed.

A drive that started late in the first quarter was climaxed in the second period when Nick Richards plunged over from the one to put Salineville in front, 12-6, for a lead it never lost. The drive covered 80 yards.

The Indians added a touchdown in the fourth quarter after going 56, then sending Ron Dunlap in the end zone from the one again.

Newell passed most of the afternoon, attempting 26 times and completing 8. Mick Staley was doing most of the throwing.

Pitt's Sterling Upset Marks College Picture

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

About this stage of the college football season some of the teams that have been establishing fine reputations begin popping stitches and coming apart at the seams from the rigors of all-major schedules.

It happened last Saturday to Syracuse, the 1959 national champion; to Baylor, and, to a lesser extent, to second-ranked Mississippi. As a result only seven major teams go into November with clean records.

They are Missouri, Navy, Utah State and New Mexico State, all seven-game winners, and Iowa, Minnesota and Yale, each 6-0. And look what's in store for them.

Iowa, ranked No. 1 in The Associated Press poll and candidate No. 1 for the Rose Bowl invitation, runs into the big tough Minnesota team that has been a source of embarrassment to the folks who wanted to fire Coach Murray Warmath a year ago. Iowa had something less than an easy time last Saturday beating Kansas 21-7 while sixth-ranked Minnesota rolled over Kansas State 48-7.

Navy, for whom Joe Bellino pulled out a 14-7 decision over Notre Dame, encounters Duke, a 6-0 winner over Georgia Tech. Both teams are very much in the bowl picture at this stage.

Missouri, scoring the first time it got the ball for the fifth time in seven games, whomped Nebraska 28-0. Colorado, tied with the Tigers for the Big Eight lead, had trouble beating the same Nebraska team two weeks ago but staged a joyous celebration after last Saturday's 7-0 decision over Oklahoma.

Utah State and Wyoming share the Skyline Conference lead after beating Brigham Young 34-0 and Utah 17-7, respectively. Southern Cal, 21-6 winner over Stanford, and Washington, 7-6 victor over Oregon, share the top spot in the Big Five. The winner likely will represent the West in the Rose Bowl.

Since Mississippi was held to a hard-won 6-6 tie by Louisiana State, Tennessee, also tied but unbeaten, is in a good spot to bid for the Southeastern Conference title. The Vols trimmed North Carolina 27-14 Saturday. Ole Miss and Tennessee meet Nov. 12.

Baylor yielded the Southwest Conference lead to Rice and dropped into a second-place tie with Arkansas after losing 14-6 to Texas Christian, which had won only one previous game. How long this situation will last is debatable. Arkansas, which conquered Texas A&M 7-3 in a Saturday night game, is the next Rice opponent while Baylor faces Texas, 17-7 winner over SMU.

Syracuse, lacking the strong two-way interior lineman who made last year's Sizeable Seven so formidable, was ouplayed and beaten 10-0 by a Pittsburgh team whose 3-2-2 record hardly is a true measure of s strength. Both Pitt losses were by one point.

Those upsets weren't the day's real shockers, however. The defeat of previously unbeaten Rutgers by non-winning Villanova, 14-12; George Washington's 20-6 victory over the Air Force and the 44-6 score Columbia rolled up against Cornell were among the more surprising results.

Seattle Driver Wins Annual Reno Regatta

RENO, Nev. (AP)—The Mapes Cup, awarded to the winner of the annual Reno Regatta for unlimited hydroplane racing, is held by Ron Musson of Seattle today.

Musson piloted his Hawaii Kai to an easy second place finish in the final heat of Sunday's racing at Pyramid Lake. He scored 1,100 points in the two-day event compared to runnerup Bill Brow's 869 points. Brow drove Miss Bardahl of Seattle.

Third place went to Miss Spokane, piloted by Rex Manchester, who had 850 points.

Adios Butler Turns In Fastest Mile Pace

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP) — Adios Butler has won the deciding leg of the $75,000 American Pacing Classic with the fastest mile ever paced in the West.

His time of 1.55 3-5 gave him the rubber match over Bye Bye Byrd at Hollywood Park Saturday. Each had won an earlier heat. Bye Bye Byrd finished third Saturday.

West Branch Ends Beaver Local's Win Streak At 7 In Row

Fast Moving Warrior Eleven Posts 38-0 Count Before 3,000 At Salem

West Branch (Goshen Union) ended the winning streak at seven straight Saturday night at Salem's Reilly Stadium with a 38-0 victory before a West Branch homecoming crowd of 3,000.

The Warriors scored in every period and stopped several Beaver Local threats around the 10 - yard line to record their sixth straight win after losing the second game of the season.

He scored the first TD in the opening period on a 14-yard run, then went 11 yards in the third quarter and 13 yards later in the same period.

Tom Baxter netted a pair of touchdowns on runs of 35 and 7, while Joe Meissner picked up six points on a run of 10 yards.

Beaver Local wasn't at full strength. Ron McLaughlin, its top scorer, was bothered by a pulled leg muscle. He didn't start, but was inserted early in the first period.

McLaughlin carried seven times, but only picked up 14 yards. However he returned a punt from his own 5-yard line to the West Branch 15 for one of Beaver Local's deepest penetrations.

West Branch showed a big edge in statistics, picking up 354 yards on the ground and 70 more in the air. Beaver Local only had 107 on the turf and 6 by passing.

West Branch now stands at 7-1 for the season. The Beavers have an identical record.

Beaver Local travels to Wellsville Friday night where the Tigers will be out to avenge an upset loss to the Beavers a year ago.

Deer Hurt By Truck Destroyed In Hancock

An 8-point buck which bounded into the path of a Warren trucker after a swim in the Ohio River was destroyed by Hancock County sheriff deputies Sunday because the impact of the collision broke three of the animal's legs.

The sheriff's office in New Cumberland said the big deer ran into the path of a pickup truck operated by Arthur Pierson of Warren on Route 66 near the Chester city limits.

Deputies turned over the carcass to Walter McCrea, county game warden.

The truck damage was about $150, deputies reported. The collision occurred at 1:50 a. m. Sunday.

Cage Coaches Set Up New Plan To Select All-Stars

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's high school basketball coaches have agreed on a new system for selecting players for the June 17 North-South All - Star game at Cuyahoga Falls.

The new selection method splits the state into 16 districts with eight of them, representing 447 schools, in the south and the other eight, representing 508 schools, in the north.

Each squad in the cage classic has 10 players. To fill out the 10-man squads — since each of the eight districts will have one player—the coach in the half of the state not acting as host will make two additonal selections. The sponsor and the host coach will select one each in the other half of the state.

Paul Walker of Middletown was re-elected secretary - treasurer of the association, and John Cabas of Salem was elected second vice president. Bill Satterlee of Akron South assumed the presidnecy for the next two years. Tom Thatcher of Sulphur Springs, the first vice president, will take over at the conclusion of Satterlee's term.

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

This should be showdown week for the Green Bay Packers, who must derail he National Football League champion Baltimore Colts to keep their title-bound express rolling toward the Western Division crown.

The Packers, picking up momentum at every stop in a determined drive to bring the circuit's smallest city its first title since 1944, relied on the high-scoring duo of Paul Hornung and Jim Taylor for a 19-13 triumph over the Pittsburgh Steelers Sunday.

Green Bay's fourth consecutive victory after an opening game loss left them atop the Western standings when the Chicago Bears bowed to the San Francisco 49ers 25-7.

The two-time champion Colts, prepping for the Packers' invasion of Baltimore this Sunday, smashed the Dallas Cowboys 45-7 with Johnny Unitas passing for four ouchdowns and extending his record TD-a-game streak to 43 straight regular season contests.

The Colts have moved into second place with a 4-2 record while the Bears, who will be idle his week, are in third with a 3-2-1 mark.

The scrambled situation is similar in the Eastern Division where the Cleveland Browns thumped the Washington Redskins 31-10 on Bobby Mitchell's running and passing to wind up in a tie for first place with idle Philadelphia. Both are 4-1.

The New York Giants fell ino third with a 3-1-1 slate as the St. Louis Cardinals upset the defending Eastern titlists 20-13. The Browns will meet the Giants this Sunday in a crucial test while the Eagles tackle Pittsburgh.

In the other game on Sunday's program, the Los Angeles Rams outlasted Detroit's Lions 48-35 for their first victory.

American League action was limted to two games. Dallas edged Denver 17-14, droppnig the Broncos into a tie for the Western Division lead with Los Angeles, and Buffalo upset Houston's Eastern Division front-runners 25-24.

Taylor crashed over from the 1-yard line to cap a 66-yard drive that gave Green Bay the lead with 1:03 remaining after a 12-0 bulge built on Hornung's four field goals had been wiped out by the Steelers (2-3-1). Touchdown passes of 37 and 48 yards by Pittsburgh's ailing Bobby Layne were not enough to combat Taylor and Hornung, who have scored 101 of the Packers' 137 points.

Quarterback John Brodie took over for injured Y. A. Tittle with the 49ers trailing the Bears 7-6 in the second period and within a space of 47 seconds San Francisco (3-3) had a pair of TDs. J. D. Smith slammed one yard for the first score. Willie Galimore then fumbled the ensuing kickoff and Bobby Waters pounced on it. Two plays later R. C. Owens took a 32-yard pitch from Brodie for another six-pointer.

Brilliant Busts Stanton's Win Streak In 22-0 Battle

By CHUCK CRONIN
Review Sports Writer

The sluggish Irons yielded touchdowns to their Jefferson County rivals after a first quarter fumble, an intercepted pass in the third and a short drive in the fading moments of the game.

Both squads now show identical 5-3 season records. Stanton's defeat came after a string of four straight victories over Strausburg, Salineville, Wayne and Newell.

A fumble by Stanton Local after the opening kickoff led to the first TD. The Blue Devils, recovering on the Stanton 49, Marched the distance in 11 plays and took the lead on Halfback Paul Schmidt's one-yard plunge.

The important play in the series was a pass from Schmidt to Lynn McCutcheon from Stanton's 29 to the 9. An attempted pass for the conversion was batted down by John Pearson of Stanton in the secondary.

Quarterback Bob Mills sparked a Stanton Local drive near halftime when he raced 25 yards from the Irons' 30 to the Brilliant 45. Aided by a 15-yard penalty against Brilliant for defensive holding, the Irons drove to the Brilliant 18 but halftime ended before the threat could materialize into a touchdown that would have deadlocked the score.

Brilliant got an insurance touchdown in the third period on a 20-yard runback of an intercepted pass by Tarr and his crash over left tackle for the conversion signaled the end of Stanton's hopes for a triumph.

Early in the final quarter, the Irons penetrated to the Brilliant 10, chiefly on the running of quarterback Mills, but his fumble ended the march.

Tarr hauled in a 23-yard aerial on the Stanton 6 in the fading minutes of the game and Freeland climaxed the drive with a crash over the middle for the touchdown. His buck over the Stanton right side hoisted the score to 22-0.

Stanton end Curt Rose saw duty for the entire afternoon although having to favor a punctured foot received Friday night when he stepped on a sharp piece of farm equipment.

Mills was the workhorse of the Stanton attack, carrying 19 times. Defensively, halfback Stan Wickham and halfback Bob Perkins were standouts and made many tackles in the secondary. Dave Davis, co-captain tackle, anchored the Stanton line with Wayne Ketchum on Stanton's goal line stand.

Beaver Local can now turn its attention to the all-important game with rival Wellsville Friday night, but the Beavers won't have to worry about their perfect mark.

West Branch (Goshen Union) ended the winning streak at seven straight Saturday night at Salem's Reilly Stadium with a 38-0 victory before a West Branch homecoming crowd of 3,000.

The Warriors scored in every period and stopped several Beaver Local threats around the 10 - yard line to record their sixth straight win after losing the second game of the season.

West Branch showed a swift-moving outfit led by Frank McDaniel, who crossed the goal line three times.

He scored the first TD in the opening period on a 14-yard run, then went 11 yards in the third quarter and 13 yards later in the same period.

Tom Baxter netted a pair of touchdowns on runs of 35 and 7, while Joe Meissner picked up six points on a run of 10 yards.

Beaver Local wasn't at full strength. Ron McLaughlin, its top scorer, was bothered by a pulled leg muscle. He didn't start, but was inserted early in the first period.

McLaughlin carried seven times, but only picked up 14 yards. However he returned a punt from his own 5-yard line to the West Branch 15 for one of Beaver Local's deepest penetrations.

West Branch showed a big edge in statistics, picking up 354 yards on the ground and 70 more in the air. Beaver Local only had 107 on the turf and 6 by passing.

Baxter and McDaniel chewed up the yardage for the Warriors, Baxter netted 144 yards in 21 carries, while McDaniel had 133 yards in 11 attempts.

Fullback Carl Hoppel was the leading ground gainer for the losers. He carried 14 times for 45 yards.

West Branch now stands at 7-1 for the season. The Beavers have an identical record.

Beaver Local travels to Wellsville Friday night where the Tigers will be out to avenge an upset loss to the Beavers a year ago.

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

This should be showdown week for the Green Bay Packers, who must derail he National Football League champion Baltimore Colts to keep their title-bound express rolling toward the Western Division crown.

The Packers, picking up momentum at every stop in a determined drive to bring the circuit's smallest city its first title since 1944, relied on the high-scoring duo of Paul Hornung and Jim Taylor for a 19-13 triumph over the Pittsburgh Steelers Sunday.

Green Bay's fourth consecutive victory after an opening game loss left them atop the Western standings when the Chicago Bears bowed to the San Francisco 49ers 25-7.

The two-time champion Colts, prepping for the Packers' invasion of Baltimore this Sunday, smashed the Dallas Cowboys 45-7 with Johnny Unitas passing for four ouchdowns and extending his record TD-a-game streak to 43 straight regular season contests.

The Colts have moved into second place with a 4-2 record while the Bears, who will be idle his week, are in third with a 3-2-1 mark.

The scrambled situation is similar in the Eastern Division where the Cleveland Browns thumped the Washington Redskins 31-10 on Bobby Mitchell's running and passing to wind up in a tie for first place with idle Philadelphia. Both are 4-1.

The New York Giants fell ino third with a 3-1-1 slate as the St. Louis Cardinals upset the defending Eastern titlists 20-13. The Browns will meet the Giants this Sunday in a crucial test while the Eagles tackle Pittsburgh.

In the other game on Sunday's program, the Los Angeles Rams outlasted Detroit's Lions 48-35 for their first victory.

American League action was limted to two games. Dallas edged Denver 17-14, droppnig the Broncos into a tie for the Western Division lead with Los Angeles, and Buffalo upset Houston's Eastern Division front-runners 25-24.

Taylor crashed over from the 1-yard line to cap a 66-yard drive that gave Green Bay the lead with 1:03 remaining after a 12-0 bulge built on Hornung's four field goals had been wiped out by the Steelers (2-3-1). Touchdown passes of 37 and 48 yards by Pittsburgh's ailing Bobby Layne were not enough to combat Taylor and Hornung, who have scored 101 of the Packers' 137 points.

Quarterback John Brodie took over for injured Y. A. Tittle with the 49ers trailing the Bears 7-6 in the second period and within a space of 47 seconds San Francisco (3-3) had a pair of TDs. J. D. Smith slammed one yard for the first score. Willie Galimore then fumbled the ensuing kickoff and Bobby Waters pounced on it. Two plays later R. C. Owens took a 32-yard pitch from Brodie for another six-pointer.

Brilliant Busts Stanton's Win Streak In 22-0 Battle

By CHUCK CRONIN
Review Sports Writer

The sluggish Irons yielded touchdowns to their Jefferson County rivals after a first quarter fumble, an intercepted pass in the third and a short drive in the fading moments of the game.

Both squads now show identical 5-3 season records. Stanton's defeat came after a string of four straight victories over Strausburg, Salineville, Wayne and Newell.

A fumble by Stanton Local after the opening kickoff led to the first TD. The Blue Devils, recovering on the Stanton 49, Marched the distance in 11 plays and took the lead on Halfback Paul Schmidt's one-yard plunge.

The important play in the series was a pass from Schmidt to Lynn McCutcheon from Stanton's 29 to the 9. An attempted pass for the conversion was batted down by John Pearson of Stanton in the secondary.

The Blue Devils pounded to the Stanton goal line in the second quarter but the Irons held to remain in contention and punted out of danger.

Quarterback Bob Mills sparked a Stanton Local drive near halftime when he raced 25 yards from the Irons' 30 to the Brilliant 45. Aided by a 15-yard penalty against Brilliant for defensive holding, the Irons drove to the Brilliant 18 but halftime ended before the threat could materialize into a touchdown that would have deadlocked the score.

Brilliant got an insurance touchdown in the third period on a 20-yard runback of an intercepted pass by Tarr and his crash over left tackle for the conversion signaled the end of Stanton's hopes for a triumph.

Early in the final quarter, the Irons penetrated to the Brilliant 10, chiefly on the running of quarterback Mills, but his fumble ended the march.

Tarr hauled in a 23-yard aerial on the Stanton 6 in the fading minutes of the game and Freeland climaxed the drive with a crash over the middle for the touchdown. His buck over the Stanton right side hoisted the score to 22-0.

Along with Allen., tackle Tom Carpenter of Stanton also was injured in the hard-hitting action.

Stanton end Curt Rose saw duty for the entire afternoon although having to favor a punctured foot received Friday night when he stepped on a sharp piece of farm equipment.

Mills was the workhorse of the Stanton attack, carrying 19 times. Defensively, halfback Stan Wickham and halfback Bob Perkins were standouts and made many tackles in the secondary. Dave Davis, co-captain tackle, anchored the Stanton line with Wayne Ketchum on Stanton's goal line stand.

Cage Coaches Set Up New Plan To Select All-Stars

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's high school basketball coaches have agreed on a new system for selecting players for the June 17 North-South All - Star game at Cuyahoga Falls.

Deer Hurt By Truck Destroyed In Hancock

An 8-point buck which bounded into the path of a Warren trucker after a swim in the Ohio River was destroyed by Hancock County sheriff deputies Sunday because the impact of the collision broke three of the animal's legs.

The sheriff's office in New Cumberland said the big deer ran into the path of a pickup truck operated by Arthur Pierson of Warren on Route 66 near the Chester city limits.

Deputies turned over the carcass to Walter McCrea, county game warden.

The truck damage was about $150, deputies reported. The collision occurred at 1:50 a. m. Sunday.

Reds Planning Further Riots Report Shows

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Internal Security subcommittee says more anti-American riots are likely in Latin America and Asia. It says they will be Communist-inspired.

1. The Bogota, Colombia, riots during an Inter-American Conference in 1948.

2. The stoning of Vice President Richard M. Nixon in Caracas, Venezuela, in 1958.

3. The La Paz, Bolivia, riots after publication of a Time magazine article in 1959.

4. The Tokyo rioting before the scheduled visit of President Eisenhower this year.

Describing them all as anti-American and Communist-inspired, the subcommittee said "the success achieved by Communists in manipulating mobs for anti-American incitement will encourage them to further efforts of this kind on a larger scale."

The subcommittee also said the four riots "give evidence of long-range planning and far-reaching effectiveness."

The subcommittee saw the hand of Communist China in some of the rioting. It said the Chinese Communist party "has rendered valuable assistance to Communist parties in Latin America and to Japan which have organized mob violence."

Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., is chairman of the subcommittee.

Costume Parade Held By Club At Salineville

Speaker Sees Keystone Win By Democrats

Miss Genevieve Blatt, Pennsylvania secretary of internal affairs, told a crowd of more than 500 at a Democratic presidential campaign dinner Saturday in Aliquippa that there are two reasons why Democrats are going to see a landslide victory in the Nov. 8 general election in Pennsylvania and the nation.

First, she said "The people are ready to listen to a man facing facts....and to say the truth about them;" the second "The people in the United States as a whole, but particularly in Pennsylvania, are tired of and disillusioned by divided government."

Kay Kluz, acting director of the United Steelworkers Union's District 20, said: "We are here to pledge every resource of the USW and every cent of a political action fund and to do every conceivable thing we possibly can do in behalf of a great Democratic group who will be led by the next president of the United States, John F. Kennedy."

Eli Corak of Midland, Beaver County chairman, said Beaver County Democrats have pledged a 15,000-vote plurality to Kennedy. But if certain other communities would go Democratic, that vote could go up 5,000 or 6,000 more, he said.

He said his motto is team work and solidarity and that from now until Nov. 8, the Democrats have no alternative but to "go for broke."

3 Youths Held On Fake Coins

FOLLANSBEE — Police are holding three young men for questioning in connection with a fake coin racket being worked in automatic laundries in the area.

The racket plaguing laundry owners works like this: A slug of the same size and weight as a quarter is placed in a change-making machine and out come five good nickels.

Being held for questioning are Richard W. Rodell, 21, and Charles E. Harris, 29, both of Muncie, Ind., and Howard P. Lenker, 21, of Weirton.

Weirton police filed charges against Rodell for operating an auto without a license. Charges of having no registration papers and permitting an unlicensed driver to operate his car were placed against Harris. Lenker was a passenger.

Police then searched the auto and found the copper slugs and the quanitity of nickels. Police said the trio confessed to having inserted the slugs in machines in Follansbee.

Military Denies Rumor

WASHINGTON (AP) — There are no plans to move the missile testing station from Cape Canaveral, Fla., the Air Force says.

Rep. Merwin Coad, D-Iowa, had said Saturday night that he had learned from reliable sources that a transfer was possible. The Cuban situation, Coad said, might make the change necessary.

But a spokesman for the Air Force denied Coad's report Sunday night.

May I take this opportunity to again thank my loyal supporters for their fine support of me in the Primary Election.

I would like also, at this time, to publicly endorse Anthony "Tony" Leon and ask that you also support him. He is a Democrat who is educationally qualified to do the job. A man, friendly to all, whose goal is the betterment of Hancock County. Vote for Anthony "Tony" Leon, Democrat, for Assessor.

Reds Planning Further Riots Report Shows

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Internal Security subcommittee says more anti-American riots are likely in Latin America and Asia. It says they will be Communist-inspired.

The prediction came in a study released by the subcommittee Sunday.

The study dealt with four riots:

1. The Bogota, Colombia, riots during an Inter-American Conference in 1948.

2. The stoning of Vice President Richard M. Nixon in Caracas, Venezuela, in 1958.

3. The La Paz, Bolivia, riots after publication of a Time magazine article in 1959.

4. The Tokyo rioting before the scheduled visit of President Eisenhower this year.

Describing them all as anti-American and Communist-inspired, the subcommittee said "the success achieved by Communists in manipulating mobs for anti-American incitement will encourage them to further efforts of this kind on a larger scale."

The subcommittee also said the four riots "give evidence of long-range planning and far-reaching effectiveness."

The subcommittee saw the hand of Communist China in some of the rioting. It said the Chinese Communist party "has rendered valuable assistance to Communist parties in Latin America and to Japan which have organized mob violence."

Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., is chairman of the subcommittee.

Speaker Sees Keystone Win By Democrats

Miss Genevieve Blatt, Pennsylvania secretary of internal affairs, told a crowd of more than 500 at a Democratic presidential campaign dinner Saturday in Aliquippa that there are two reasons why Democrats are going to see a landslide victory in the Nov. 8 general election in Pennsylvania and the nation.

First, she said "The people are ready to listen to a man facing facts....and to say the truth about them;" the second "The people in the United States as a whole, but particularly in Pennsylvania, are tired of and disillusioned by divided government."

Kay Kluz, acting director of the United Steelworkers Union's District 20, said: "We are here to pledge every resource of the USW and every cent of a political action fund and to do every conceivable thing we possibly can do in behalf of a great Democratic group who will be led by the next president of the United States, John F. Kennedy."

Eli Corak of Midland, Beaver County chairman, said Beaver County Democrats have pledged a 15,000-vote plurality to Kennedy. But if certain other communities would go Democratic, that vote could go up 5,000 or 6,000 more, he said.

He said his motto is team work and solidarity and that from now until Nov. 8, the Democrats have no alternative but to "go for broke."

Area authorities did not have reports on either mishap.

No injuries occurred in a three-car crash in Newell Saturday afternoon, Hancock County sheriff's deputies reported.

The crash involved autos driven by Richard Eckleberry, 60, of Parkersburg, and William E. Campbell, 29, of Grant St., Newell, and the parked car of William E. Mills of Lansing, Mich.

Deputies said Campbell was driving north on Route 66 when he struck the car of Eckleberry, who was coming out of 2nd St. The Campbell auto then bounced into the parked car of Mills, deputies said. The mishap occurred at 1:30 p. m.

Drivers Fined In Local Court

Daroski was fined $15 and costs for speeding 60 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone and $25 and costs for illegal registration. Police said the pursuit started on W. 8th St. and reached speeds of 80 miles an hour before Daroski was hauled about half way to Wellsville.

George Bernard Stout of Cadmus St. was fined $15 and costs on a charge of operating a motor vehicle with inadequate brakes. He was cited Friday afternoon after an accident on Smith St.

Walter Galloway, rear 807 Dewey Ave., was fined $5 and costs for crashing a stop sign at Virginia Ave. and St. George St. Saturday afternoon.

2 Winners Announced In Table Tennis Play

The winners were announced today in a citywide table tennis contest held Sunday for the youth of the community by Wellsville Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 5647.

The winners of all three divisions will participate in the 6th District play-off Nov. 5 at Dover. Dorman Rosenlieb is in charge.

City Police Probe Vandalism Cases

Gordon E. Starkey, 545 Henry Ave., told officers Sunday night a 6-x-6-inch window and another 24-x-24 were broken by a small stone hurled by youngsters.

James Flasco, city Democratic chairman, said a 32-x-44-inch window at the rear of the party's headquarters in the Trotter Building on Dresden Ave. was smashed Saturday night by a rock. Four boys were seen running away from the building, he told officers.

Mrs. Teresa Yager, 315 Monroe St., told officers boys threw stones at her home Saturday night and then threw more at her as she chased them away.

3 Youths Held On Fake Coins

FOLLANSBEE — Police are holding three young men for questioning in connection with a fake coin racket being worked in automatic laundries in the area.

Follansbee police got their first break in the case Sunday when two men from Muncie, Ind., were cited in Weirton on routine traffic charges.

Upon searching the auto, police found 114 copper slugs the size of quarters and $4.50 in nickels.

The racket plaguing laundry owners works like this: A slug of the same size and weight as a quarter is placed in a change-making machine and out come five good nickels.

Being held for questioning are Richard W. Rodell, 21, and Charles E. Harris, 29, both of Muncie, Ind., and Howard P. Lenker, 21, of Weirton.

Weirton police filed charges against Rodell for operating an auto without a license. Charges of having no registration papers and permitting an unlicensed driver to operate his car were placed against Harris. Lenker was a passenger.

Police then searched the auto and found the copper slugs and the quantity of nickels. Police said the trio confessed to having inserted the slugs in machines in Follansbee.

$26,322 Civil Case Continues At Lisbon

LISBON — A verdict in the $26,322 personal injury suit of Joseph Pahanish of Leetonia R. D. 2 against Frank Everett of Columbiana R. D. 2 is not expected until late Tuesday afternoon or Wednesday in Judge Raymond S. Buzzard's court.

The trial began Thursday, but was recessed Friday because the court had a full day of motions and demurrers. The plaintiff is expected to rest late today or tomorrow morning.

Military Denies Rumor

WASHINGTON (AP) — There are no plans to move the missile testing station from Cape Canaveral, Fla., the Air Force says.

Rep. Merwin Coad, D-Iowa, had said Saturday night that he had learned from reliable sources that a transfer was possible. The Cuban situation, Coad said, might make the change necessary.

But a spokesman for the Air Force denied Coad's report Sunday night.

May I take this opportunity to again thank my loyal supporters for their fine support of me in the Primary Election.

I would like also, at this time, to publicly endorse Anthony "Tony" Leon and ask that you also support him. He is a Democrat who is educationally qualified to do the job. A man, friendly to all, whose goal is the betterment of Hancock County. Vote for Anthony "Tony" Leon, Democrat, for Assessor.

Thank You,
NELSON ROSS
